DEDICATION

During the past thirteen years many members of the Broadalbin Faculty and Administration have greatly aided the members of the senior Class of 1976 in various ways by developing not only academic and athletic abilities, but also personalities and characters and implementing various interests and desires to attain certain goals. It is because of such concern that we of the yearbook staff would like to extend our thanks and appreciation to all those who have been involved in any way with the Class of '76. We would also like to commemorate two faculty members whom we feel deserve special attention because of their great concern, involvement, and interest in not only certain individuals but the class as a whole. During our last four years at Broadalbin Central High, these two teachers have become very close to the members of the Class of '76. They have helped us better ourselves as a class and as separate individuals in many ways. We therefore proudly dedicate our Bicentennial Yearbook to Mr. Maynard and Mr. Meany.

As many Americans know this year, 1975-1976, is a very significant and unique year in American History because it marks the two-hundreth anniversary of our nation's success in maintaining a free and independent American Society. Various celebrations have promoted the spirit as well as the feeling of colonial society, which has allowed the American public to review the past. In creating a unique and memorable yearbook, we of the '76 Kronicle Staff have incorporated aspects of our school atmosphere as well as those concerned with the Bicentennial Spirit of our nation.

TIM HALPIN — (1972-1975)

Someone I Knew

The boy I knew has gone away
But in my heart, he'll always stay
He was only here for a little while
But while he was he made me smile.

He'd laugh and joke, or squeeze my hand
He was always there to understand
Why did he act so different from the rest?
And why did it take death to show he was the best?

Oh, how I wish I could once more hear
The voice of that boy, I love so dear
It seems so unfair that he had to go
Before he could learn the things that I now know.

Sometimes I feel he is right beside me
Laughing and teasing while trying to guide me
All I know, is that I will never forget him
I will always love my cousin, Tim.

IN MEMORIAM

Out through the fields and the woods
And over the walls I have wended;
I have climbed the hills of view
And looked at the world and descended;
I have come by the highway home,
And lo, it is ended.

Ah, when to the heart of man
Was it ever less than a treason
To go with the drift of things,
To yield with a grace of reason,
And bow and accept the end
Of a love or a season?

GIRLS AND BOY STATE REPRESENTATIVES

Ralph Kruger, Mary Beth Crannell, Paul Kibler

Eileen Flanagan--1975-76 winner of the annual Oratorical Contest sponsored by the American Legion. Eileen's success in speaking began in her freshman year when she achieved runner-up to Mark Palen in the 1972-73 contest. In her junior year she accomplished winning the local, county and district levels. We fellow students of Broadalbin, would just like to thank the American Legion for making this annual contest possible at Broadalbin Central School. We also would like to thank Mr. Maynard for all his time and effort he has put into this contest year after year, but mainly those of us in the senior class would like to thank Eileen Flanagan not only for winning, but for making us proud to put Broadalbin on the map again this year.
