PREFACE

We, the Senior Class of the Perth Central School proudly presents our first yearbook "THE HIGHLANDER." We have undertaken by its publication to convey to everyone the many activities, both curricular and extra curricular enjoyed by the student body.

For many of us, June 1958 means the end of carefree days. In the past years our paths have been guided by our parents, teachers and friends. Now, we must go forth on a wider road of life to meet the challenges of adulthood. We feel that because of the knowledge, the understanding, and the friendship given to us by our Principal and our teachers, we are qualified to face whatever problems life may have in store for us.

We wish to take this opportunity to thank all those who assisted us in making this book a success. It is our hope that the "HIGHLANDER" will lead those who follow us on the road to higher education.

DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1958, dedicate this yearbook "THE HIGHLANDER," to Mr. Vincent P. Tedesco in appreciation for the help, understanding, and wisdom he has shown us in the years he was with us.

We, the Class of 1958, dedicate also, this issue of "THE HIGHLANDER," to Mr. Owen G. Parsons in gratitude for the help extended to us in the compilation of this yearbook.

POEM

We the class
Of fifty eight,
Have waited and hoped
For this approaching date.

It means that we
Alone will be,
What it's like,
We'll wait and see.

'Cause we are free
We're happy and glad,
But leaving our teachers
Makes us quite sad.

Alone in the world,
Our support to earn;
We'll thank our teachers-
They made us learn.

We did not like it,
'Cause they made us learn;
But now alas,
For school we yearn.

Patty Bergeron
Is leaving us too,
She is liked by all-
And that means you.

Frances Bishop
Is the sociable kind.
About leaving school-
Let her make up her mind.

Joan Buchanan,
As you can guess,
Will win the trophy
For P.H.S.

Donna Collyer
Owns a horse;
But about leaving school,
She has remorse.

Bill Dworak,
The quiet type,
He is quite friendly
To the one he doth like.

We'll put Russ Hamilton
In our Hall of Fame.
Infection in his foot,
Made him temporarily lame.

A young man named Pete Herba,
A joker 'tis true,
Would give the shirt
Off his back to you.

Sheila Kenyon
Is quite tall,
And handsome boys
She doth enthrall.

Barb Mac Dougall
Will also go.
Will she like it?
She still doesn't know.

Dick Mack, a Gent,
Customized his car.
He won a trophy-
The best by far.

Teddy Moskal
Is a friend;
And making more of them
Is his trend.

Nancy Nabors,
A red-head's dream,
Wedding bells
Will be the theme.

In athletics,
Dick Sherman doth shine.
He sinks those baskets
From the center line.

Carolyn Smith
Has a sunny smile;
And seems to use it
All the while.

This is our class
Of '58,
We'll keep in our memory,
This unchangeable date.

CLASS HISTORY

As we, the seniors of 1958, think of the short time until graduation, we survey the past and see the shadows we have cast during our high school career.

When we entered our first year of high school as freshmen, we knew nothing compared to what we know now. There were twenty-six students with Mr. Tedesco and Mr. Redmond as advisors. That year we chose class officers, Patricia Mazur acted as president, Russell Hamilton as vice-president, Nancy Nabors as secretary and Harold Hemstreet as treasurer. Mr. Tedesco contributed much to our class as he guided us through many activities. Our projects that first year were selling Jello, school supplies and All Occasion Cards. We also had food sales and sponsored a spaghetti supper which proved to be very successful.

Having grown a little wiser, we now enter our sophomore year. This year our class had lost four boys and three girls, leaving a total of nineteen students. We gained only one new student. Mr. Tedesco and Mr. Redmond were class advisors. Once more we elected class officers with Richard Sherman as president, Jack Montany as vice-president, Barbara Kline as secretary and Russell Hamilton as treasurer. Our projects that year were selling magazines, a dance, which we called the "Soph Hop," a raffle for a clock-radio, a paper drive and our annual spaghetti supper.

Entering our junior year, we now found that half of our high school days were gone. We had one student, increasing our number to twenty. Once more our advisors were Mr. Tedesco and Mr. Redmond. Our class officers this year were Russell Hamilton as president, Peter Herba as vice-president, Patricia Bergeron as secretary, and Joan Buchanan as treasurer. Our projects of the year were a paper drive, selling candy, a turkey raffle, the annual spaghetti supper and the compilation and sale of our school paper, THE JUNIOR INFORMER.

As we, the senior class of 1958, enter our final year, we suddenly realize that our future depends entirely upon the last four years of high school. Our class, greatly decreased, now consists of fourteen students. Advisors this year are Mrs. White and Mr. Redmond. Elections for our senior year showed the following results: president-Richard Sherman, vice-president-Richard Mack, secretary-Patricia Bergeron, and treasurer-Sheila Kenyon. Mrs. White has directed us through this year, helping us plan our Senior Trip to Washington and New York City. In order to obtain sufficient funds for this trip, we are engaged in the following activities: Our Senior play, "ABSOLUTELY MURDER," the senior ball, our sale of Christmas cards, a dance, and a variety show. As we patiently await the final commencement exercises of Perth Central School, our beloved Alma Mater, we step out of our student role, wishing our fellow classmates good luck now and in the future.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of Perth Central School, realizing that we are about to enter into the cold, cruel world, do hereby make and declare our last will and testament to be executed in the following manner.

PARENTS- We leave peace and quiet when we leave their homes.

FACULTY- We leave the detention list for them to get on.

LOWER CLASSES

JUNIORS- We leave Miss Jenner's third period study hall.

SOPHOMORES- We leave the luck we had on our Junior Prom and Carnival.

FRESHMEN- We leave Mrs. Olendorf to tame them down.

BASKETBALL TEAM AND CHEERLEADERS- We leave the new gym.

INDIVIDUALS

I, PAT BERGERON- Leave my ability to get confused in advanced algebra to Bob Merry.

I, FRAN BISHOP- Leave my six hour time card to Nancy Pickrell hoping she can skip school without getting caught.

I, JOAN BUCHANAN- Leave my ability to solve problems to Claudia Diehsner and Esther Pickrell-- other people's that is.

I, DONNA COLLYER- Give my pony tail to Jo Bennett hoping her hair will grow long enough to wear one.

I, BILL DWORAK- Leave my lost books to anyone who can find them.

I, RUSS HAMILTON- Leave the cue stick from Willet's pool room to Tom Daggett.

I, PETER HERBA- "Leave nothing to nobody."

I, SHEILA KENYON- Leave my height to the boys on the basketball team next year.

I, BARB MACDOUGALL- Leave the best of luck always to Ray Moskal and the greatest success to his music career.

I, DICK MACK- Do not leave my Henry J, but, I do leave the sound of my mufflers to Dave Frisch.

I, TED MOSKAL- Leave my ability to do business subjects to Mrs. Olendorf.

I, NANCY NABORS- Leave my ability to digest "Betty Crocker's Cook-Book" during English class, to anyone who might need it next.

I, DICK SHERMAN- Leave to Larry Vickers my ability to play a clean game of basketball and the power to control myself against the use of foul language directed at the official.

I, CAROLYN SMITH- Leave my ability to confuse the teachers in class to Pat Vainouskas.

CLASS PROPHECY

As the world marches on, we the Senior Class of 1958 find ourselves in the midst of world confusion and believe it necessary to combine our efforts for the sole purpose of reaching our superior earth satellite, the moon. In our race for the supremacy of the skies, our organization has searched for a great professor to head the project. After searching the world over and going to great extremes, we have discovered within our own group a mad scientist, THEODORE MOSKAL, who furthered his education in the Stalingrad Nursery School in Russia. Helping with his massive project is his wife-assistant, better known to her classmates as CAROLYN SMITH.

Contributing their abilities are the engineers; BILL DWORAK, RICHARD MACK, and the only woman engineer, DONNA COLLYER. Chosen to be the privileged few to reach the moon are the nurse, BARBARA MAC DOUGLALL, and the doctor, RUSS HAMILTON, who volunteered to search for the renowned green girls. Going to establish the first rock and roll station on the moon is the disk jockey, DICK SHERMAN, who will spin the famous folk song of NANCY NABORS--"Charley, My Boy."

After days of travel, we successfully reach our destination. Our first glimpse is of two strange creatures--PAT BERGERON and JOAN BUCHANAN, who seem to be filling the craters with green cheese. We are greeted by two green girls--SHEILA KENYON and FRANCES BISHOP who take us to their leader, PETE HERBA. He escorts us around the moon and shows us their moonshine and green cheese factories. After our excursion, we head back to our rocket ship and descend to earth. On our way, we hear the top tune of the universe, "It Was Only A Paper Moon."

This memory lingers on as we look back to our memorable years as the Class of 1958.

A THANK YOU...

Had it not been for the generous businessmen who have placed ads herein, our first yearbook would not have been possible. We wish to thank them for their support and would like to suggest that our readers show their appreciation by patronizing them first.
