Foreword

We, the Senior Class of 1959 of Perth Central School, proudly present the HIGHLANDER. We hope we have kept its high standards set forth by those before us.

In presenting this publication we have done our best to bring you close to all the activities our students participate in, both curricular and extracurricular.

We would like, at this time, to thank everyone who has helped make this publication a success.

We dedicate . . .

We, the class of '59, are proud to dedicate our HIGHLANDER to MR. ROBERT C. WHITE. His ready willingness to help everyone at the school, his disregard for time spent in our behalf, his lasting smile, are characteristics that have endeared him to us. Not only is he loved by the students, but by everyone in Perth where he has taken an active part in community and social affairs. We have missed "Prof" at school this year, but hope Perth will have the good fortune of having Mr. White back again soon for many years to come.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF THE FAMOUS FIFTY NINERS

INTRODUCTION

While it is the custom of other class historians to exaggerate the abilities and attainments of their class, it is a great delight to me that I can exercise extreme modesty in writing the history of our class. In taking a retrospective view of these four years and observing the part taken in the history of Perth Central during that time by the class of fifty-nine, it is alarming to contemplate the pitiable condition of the school had it not been for this class. This assertion requires no proof. The class is willing to admit it, but, as coming generations may be skeptical, it will be well, perhaps, to record the facts.

Freshmen: The scene opens at the beginning of the school year of 1955. On stage were 20 boys (about to become men) and 13 young girls, all possessed with that strange feeling of awkwardness and timidity which so often attends the starting situation of a new act of life. However, after a few words of explanation and encouragement by Miss Hunter, our advisor, the class of fifty-nine was at ease and fired with the ambition which would carry it to its great achievements. We had not yet learned to stuff a ballot box. So on their own merits, Carol Corey was elected president. The chief assistant was vice-president, Evelyn Motyl. Nan Pickrell was made secretary as she had a real fountain pen, not just an old ball point. The money bags were intrusted to treasurer Susan Brownell only because she had a deceptively honest expression. To fill these coffers, we eager salespeople peddled pencils, paper, cards, stuffed animals and such merchandise. The high social spot of this year was our gals "Square Dance." There is no need to dwell on our academic standing, for the records show that we were up to par with the freshman standard.

Sophomore: In 1956 when the bell rang for the second round, there were now only 16 men but still 13 women to enter the ring. About the middle of the sophomore battle a new pugelist called John (Enos Chesty) Snyder entered the fray. Another welcome and decorative addition was pert Pat Vainauskas. The incumbent campaigner Carol Corey went in for the second term as class president. The treasury was growing so we made Susan Brownell vice-president and the treasurer's money was turned over to Barbara Zielinski. Pat Vainauskas borrowed the fountain pen and became secretary. To keep solvent we solicited magazine subscriptions all the way from the suburbs of western Galway to eastern West Perth and from the Vails Mills Drive-In to a glittering dance extravaganza we called "Winter Wonderland."

Junior: As in all endeavor for survival, a few will drop by the wayside and so we started our junior year with a class of 25 brilliant scholars. Just to solve the wallflower problem we bid good bye to Joe Whittey in January. We were now a dozen strong men and a dozen lovely women, which we considered a pretty perfect proportion for any situation. Larry Vickers now took the honor as president. Joe Whittey was made vice-president. Ed Kruger took over the secretary's pen and the safe was guarded by treasurer Don Kosinski. We recognized the fact that there could be some valuable experience in the senior class so we invited them to assist and cooperate in sponsoring a Valentine dance in our beautiful new gymnasium. We called it "Red Fantasia" and it was so successful that it will be talked about by the good people of the village of Perth until Perth becomes a city.

Cupid has, by now, played havoc with the heart of our advisor. She has become Mrs. Olendorf and left us. Mr. Lein capably climbed into the driver's seat and took over the lead reins of us wild mustangs.

Senior: Beavers would be put to shame if they could recognize the industrious attitude with which we tackled the problems of becoming a senior class that would be pointed to with pride by Perth Central. First a good business man for our president Dave Frisch. Second the executive experience of Carol Corey as vice-president. Honest Claudia DeGolyer as treasurer and the literary Evelyn Motyl as secretary.

The dramatic highlight of the season was our play "Stop the Wedding." Had it been shown in New York it would have stopped Broadway.

After the festivities quieted, we obtained three new members to our troop. Jack Montanye, an experienced senior, John Botta and Pauline Wohn from the big city of Amsterdam.

SUMMARY

While concentrating on the activities of our own class, we did not shirk our responsibilities of joining all other classes in furthering the glory of Perth Central in all fields, especially in athletics where Perth is known as the team which fights with the scabbard when the blade is broken.

As George Washington is pointed to by historians as the personification of patriotism, as Shakespeare is the fountain head of dramatic literature, as Euclid is the chief propounder of geometry, as Beethoven is the soul of harmony, as Raphael is the master of art, so will the class of the Famous Fifty Niners be pointed out by the faculty and by the students of the future, should truth continue to prevail, as the personification of all that is true, noble, generous and sublime.

We cannot feel too grateful to Perth Central and to her earnest, zealous faculty and her splendid spirit of roving, not drifting. We feel our future lives have to a large extent been moulded and our journey rendered more pleasant and profitable by our work here and by the association here enjoyed. And so it is with very grateful as well as with very sad hearts that we deliver into other hands the destiny of our school and turn to face other adventures and responsibilities.

We will . . .

CLASS WILL OF 1959

We the class of 1959,

leave to the school—anything that we can afford after all our expenses have been paid.

leave to the teachers—a Senior class that will get their homework in on time.

leave to the freshmen—a map guiding them through their high school years.

leave to the sophomores—Mr. Freidman and Mr. Rosenthal to guide them.

leave to the juniors—Good luck in one of the fastest moving years of their lives.

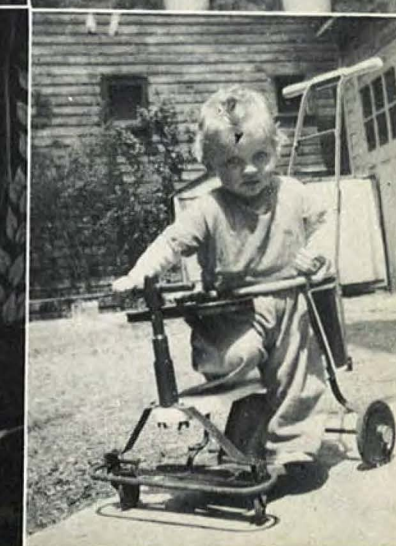

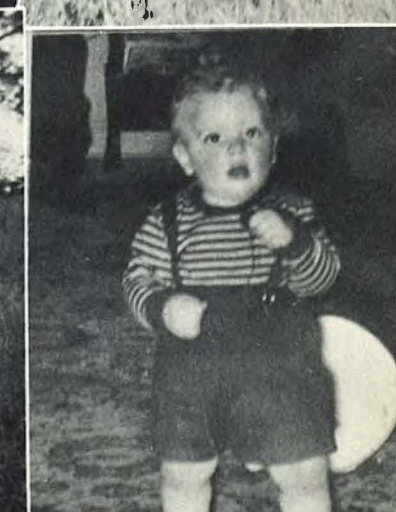

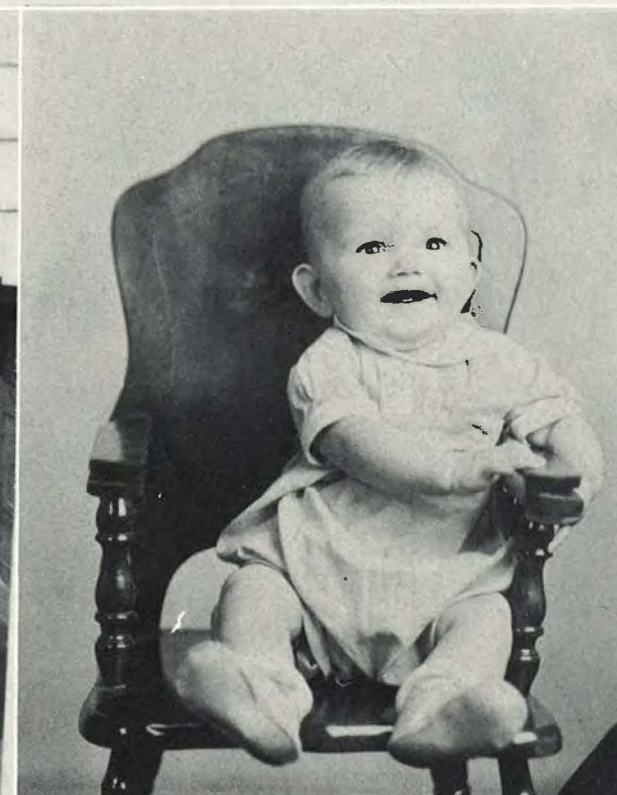

to the players and cheerleaders—another league championship.

to our parents—our old report cards with the marks they earned.

- I, SUSAN BROWNELL—leave my driving ability to Virginia Wagner.
- I, CAROL COREY—leave room 21 to the seniors, but take all the memories with me.
- I, TOM DAGGETT—leave my ability to make recordings of cars during play practice to anybody.
- I, CLAUDIA DeGOLYER—leave something I haven't got but plan to get as soon as I get it to give to someone who hasn't got it but plans to get it soon.
- I, DAVID FRISCH—will my date book to any of the juniors who need it.
- I, ANN GRAFF—leave my ability to stay away from boys to certain junior girls.
- I, CARL JAWORSKI—leave my hub cap locks to one of the juniors in the case one of them should get a car.
- I, FRANK JABLONSKI—leave my ability to shoot foul shots to Rick Vedder.
- I, CHRISTINE HICKOK—leave to future seniors my luck with their term papers.
- I, RAYMOND MOSKAL—leave my side burns to Mr. McConville.
- I, EVELYN MOTYL—leave my seat in Business Law to anyone who wants it.
- I, NANCY PICKRELL—leave my after school rides with Tim R. to a certain sophomore with the initials C. V.
- I, NANCY RICHARDS—leave my history review book to anyone who claims it.
- I, ED KRUGER—leave my speed to Bill White.
- I, RAYMOND REKSC—leave my History note book to James Hemstreet, so that he won't have to work too hard copying.
- I, ROBERT MERRY—leave my ability to voice my opinion in matters to anyone who needs it.
- I, JOANN SAWYER—leave my ability to catch, and to hang on to, a six footer to Sally Chew.
- I, RICHARD SMITH—leave my ability to twist teachers to my thinking to Alfred DiCaprio.
- I, PATRICIA VAINAUSKAS—leave my natural blonde hair to Janet Z.
- I, CAROL VANOSKY—leave my false tooth to Perry Vickers.
- I, LARRY VICKERS—leave my height to Virginia Wagner so that she can be the worlds tallest cheerleader.
- I, BARBARA ZIELINSKI, leave.

Seniors It's True

But You Guess Who . . .

The future . . .

Let us turn the clocks ahead to the year 1970. The 1959 graduation class are now on their own in the world.

SUSAN BROWNELL is the owner and operator of Perth's largest Used and Wrecked Car Business. CAROL COREY has become secretary to the president.

TOM DAGGETT and DAVID FRISCH together manufacture the latest hot rods and souped-up cars.

ANN GRAFF is happily married to her service man.

CLAUDIA DeGOLYER and DON KOSINSKI have gotten together in horse matters, and now own one of the largest ranches in Texas.

That well-known hillbilly singer, ED KRUGER, averages about 5 golden records a month. He is accompanied by RAY MOSKAL on the guitar.

JOE MASON is the manager of a large firm producing elevated athletic shoes.

NANCY PICKRELL is still knocking around town, wondering what to do now that she has left "Perth."

JACK MONTAYNE is managing a restaurant on the Alaskan Highway.

EVELYN MOTYL is the nurse to Doctor RICHARD SMITH; a very famous surgeon.

NANCY RICHARDS, in her freshly starched uniform, is working in the Perth Central Cafeteria.

BOB MERRY has become professor at Albany Teachers College.

CARL JAWORSKI is a speed car racer at Fonda-race-way.

CAROL VANOSKY spends most of her time in night clubs singing.

FRANK JABLONSKI is playing basketball for Boston Celtics replacing the fabulous Bob Cosey, in the back court.

CHRIS HICKOK is married to a manufacturer of grass skirts in the new state of Hawaii.

PAT VAINAUSKAS is happily married, with 6 children. She spends week-ends making T.V. appearances as a comedian.

JOANN SAWYER, after touring the country learning new cheers, has returned to Perth as advisor to the Varsity cheerleaders and their Captain, Pat Redmond.

LARRY VICKERS is another "Einstein." His latest "Vickers Theory" has revolutionized science.

RAYMOND REKSC is head of the Perth Fire Department.

BARBARA ZIELINSKI has surprised us all, in becoming a public speaker.
