1972 highlander

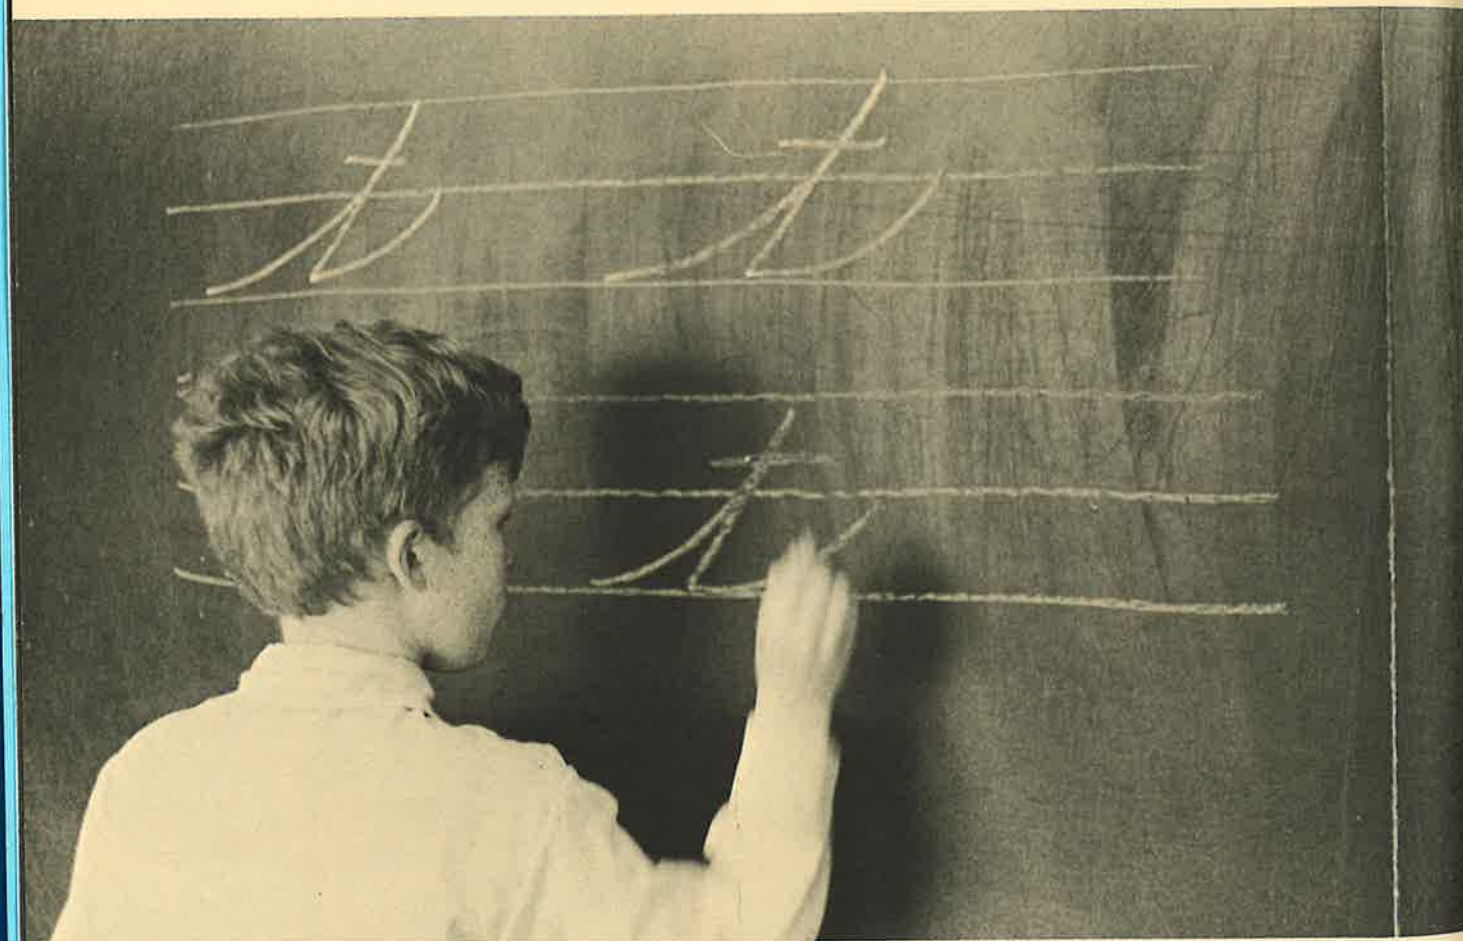

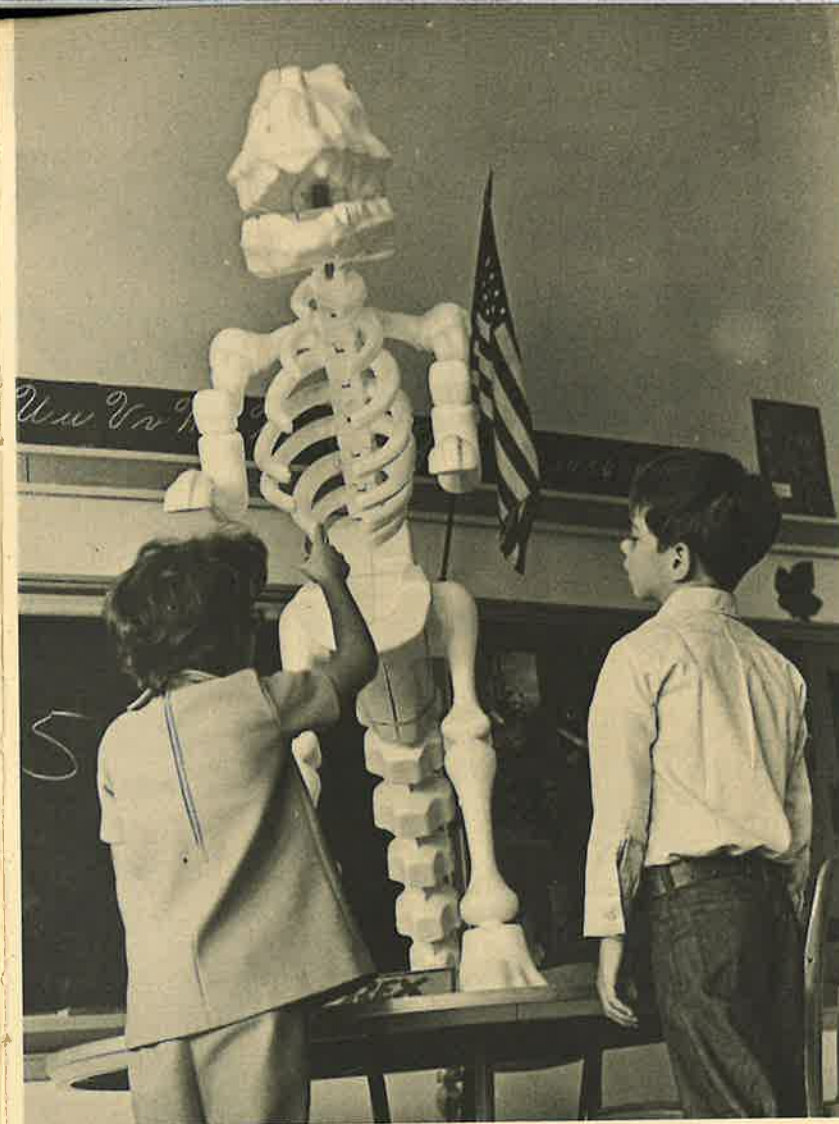

sunrise, sunset, swiftly flow the days;

seedlings turn overnight to sunflowers,

blossoming even as we gaze.

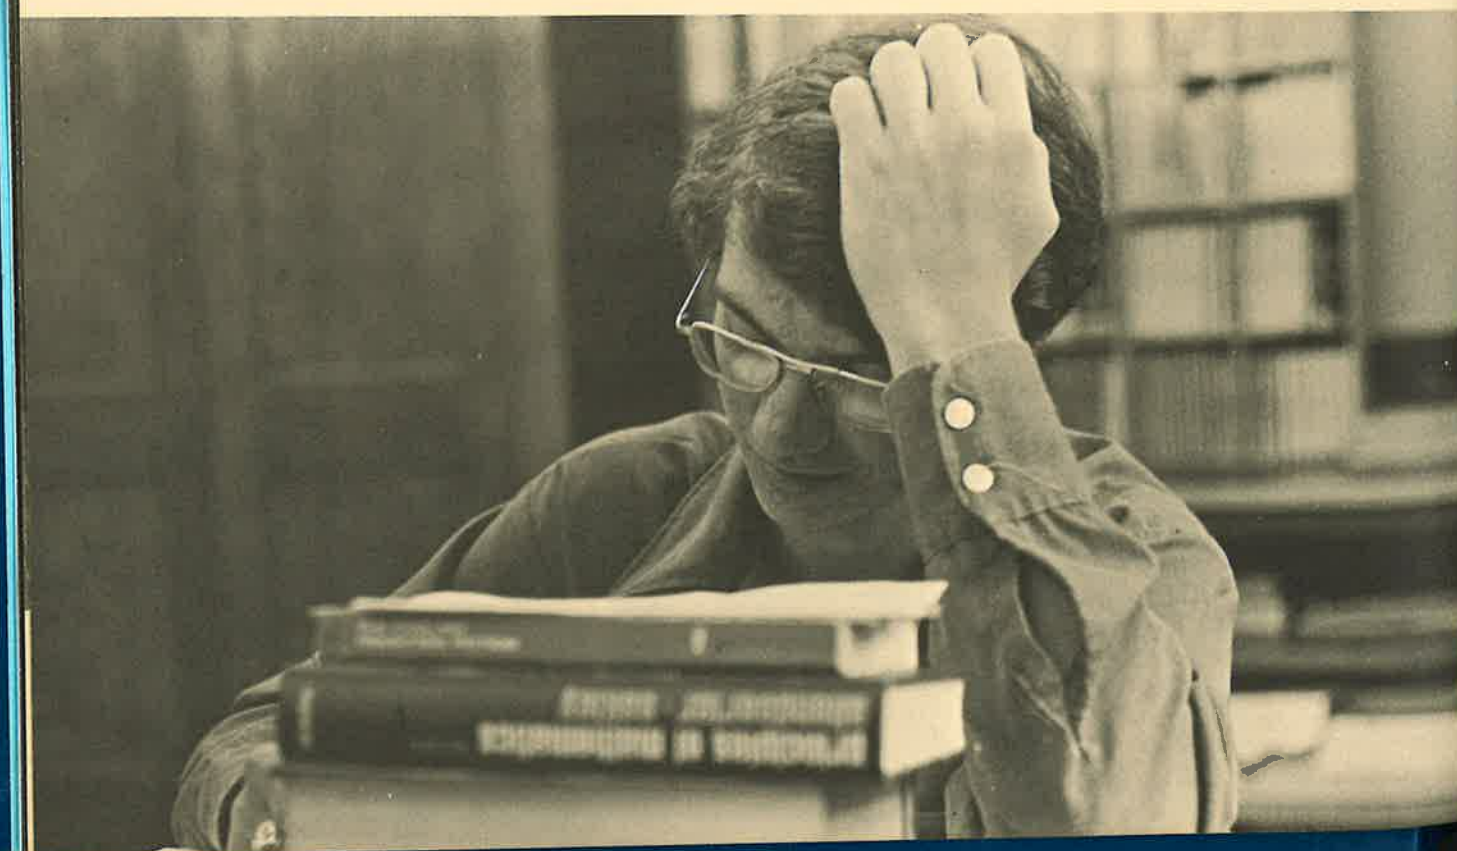

*when did she get
to be a beauty?*

*when did he grow
to be so tall?*

*wasn't it yesterday
when they were small?*

*sunrise, sunset, swiftly fly the years;
one season following another,*

laden with happiness and tears

the teacher . . . gives not of his wisdom, but rather of his faith and his lovingness.
 if he is indeed wise, he does not bid you enter the house of his wisdom, but rather leads you to the threshold of your own mind.
 kahlil gibran

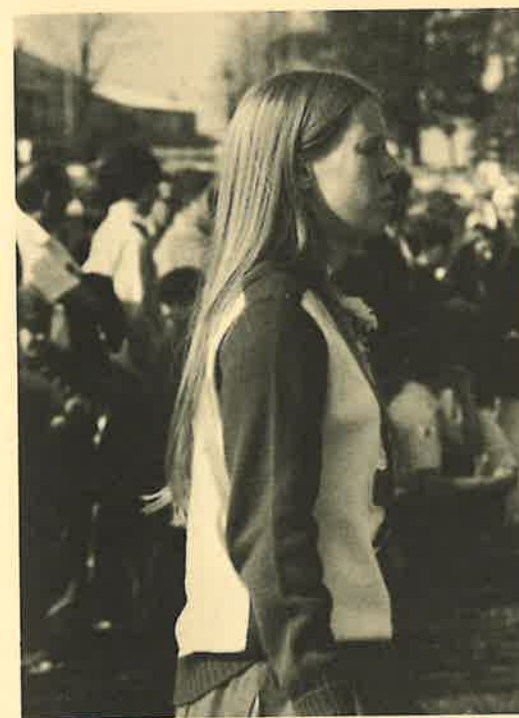

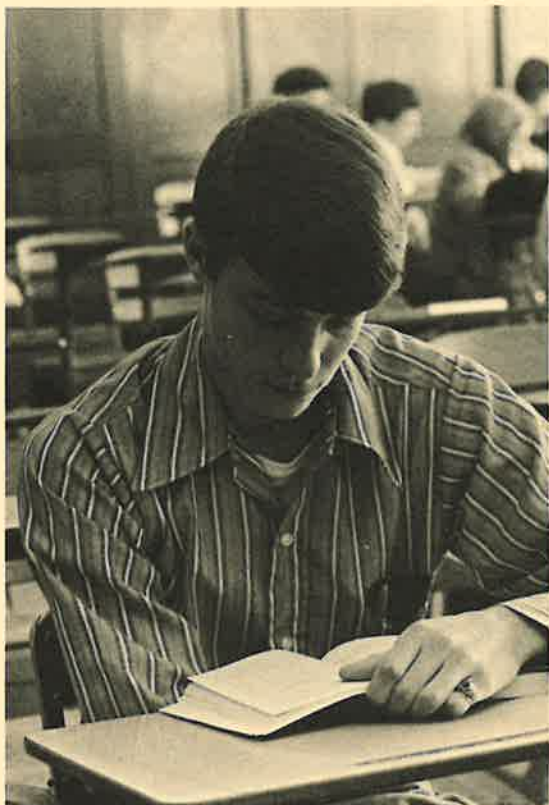

Throughout our high school career, he has always been interested in our problems and our joys. He has been a good teacher, and even more important, a good friend. We found that we could depend on him. . . at eleven o'clock the night before the Chemistry Regents, after school with the bowling team, or in our daily battles with Bensen burners and Erlenmyer flasks in chem lab.

He has taught us what dedication and integrity are, and we are grateful. Because he cares about us, the class of 1972 respectfully and affectionately dedicates this edition of the Highlander to Mr. Gary Winfield.

*i have never let my schooling
interfere with
my education.
— mark twain*

"Declaring unto you the testimony of God."

AN INVITATION

This church is a standing invitation to all to come unto God through Christ. Our hope is built on nothing less than Jesus' blood and righteousness; no effort of our own we claim, but wholly lean on Jesus' name. We invite you, the class of 1972, to investigate the claims of God's Word through the Bible teaching ministry of Perth Bible Church.

A black and white photograph of a young man and a young woman standing together. The man, on the left, is wearing a dark suit, white shirt, and a striped tie. He is looking towards the camera. The woman, on the right, has long dark hair and is wearing a dark, horizontally striped vest over a light-colored top. She is also looking towards the camera. Behind them is a wall covered with several framed and unframed drawings, posters, and artwork, including abstract sketches and what appears to be a religious or historical illustration on the left.
