1973 HIGHLANDER
PERTH CENTRAL SCHOOL

Sit down before fact as a little child,

be prepared to give up every preconceived notion,

follow humbly wherever nature leads,

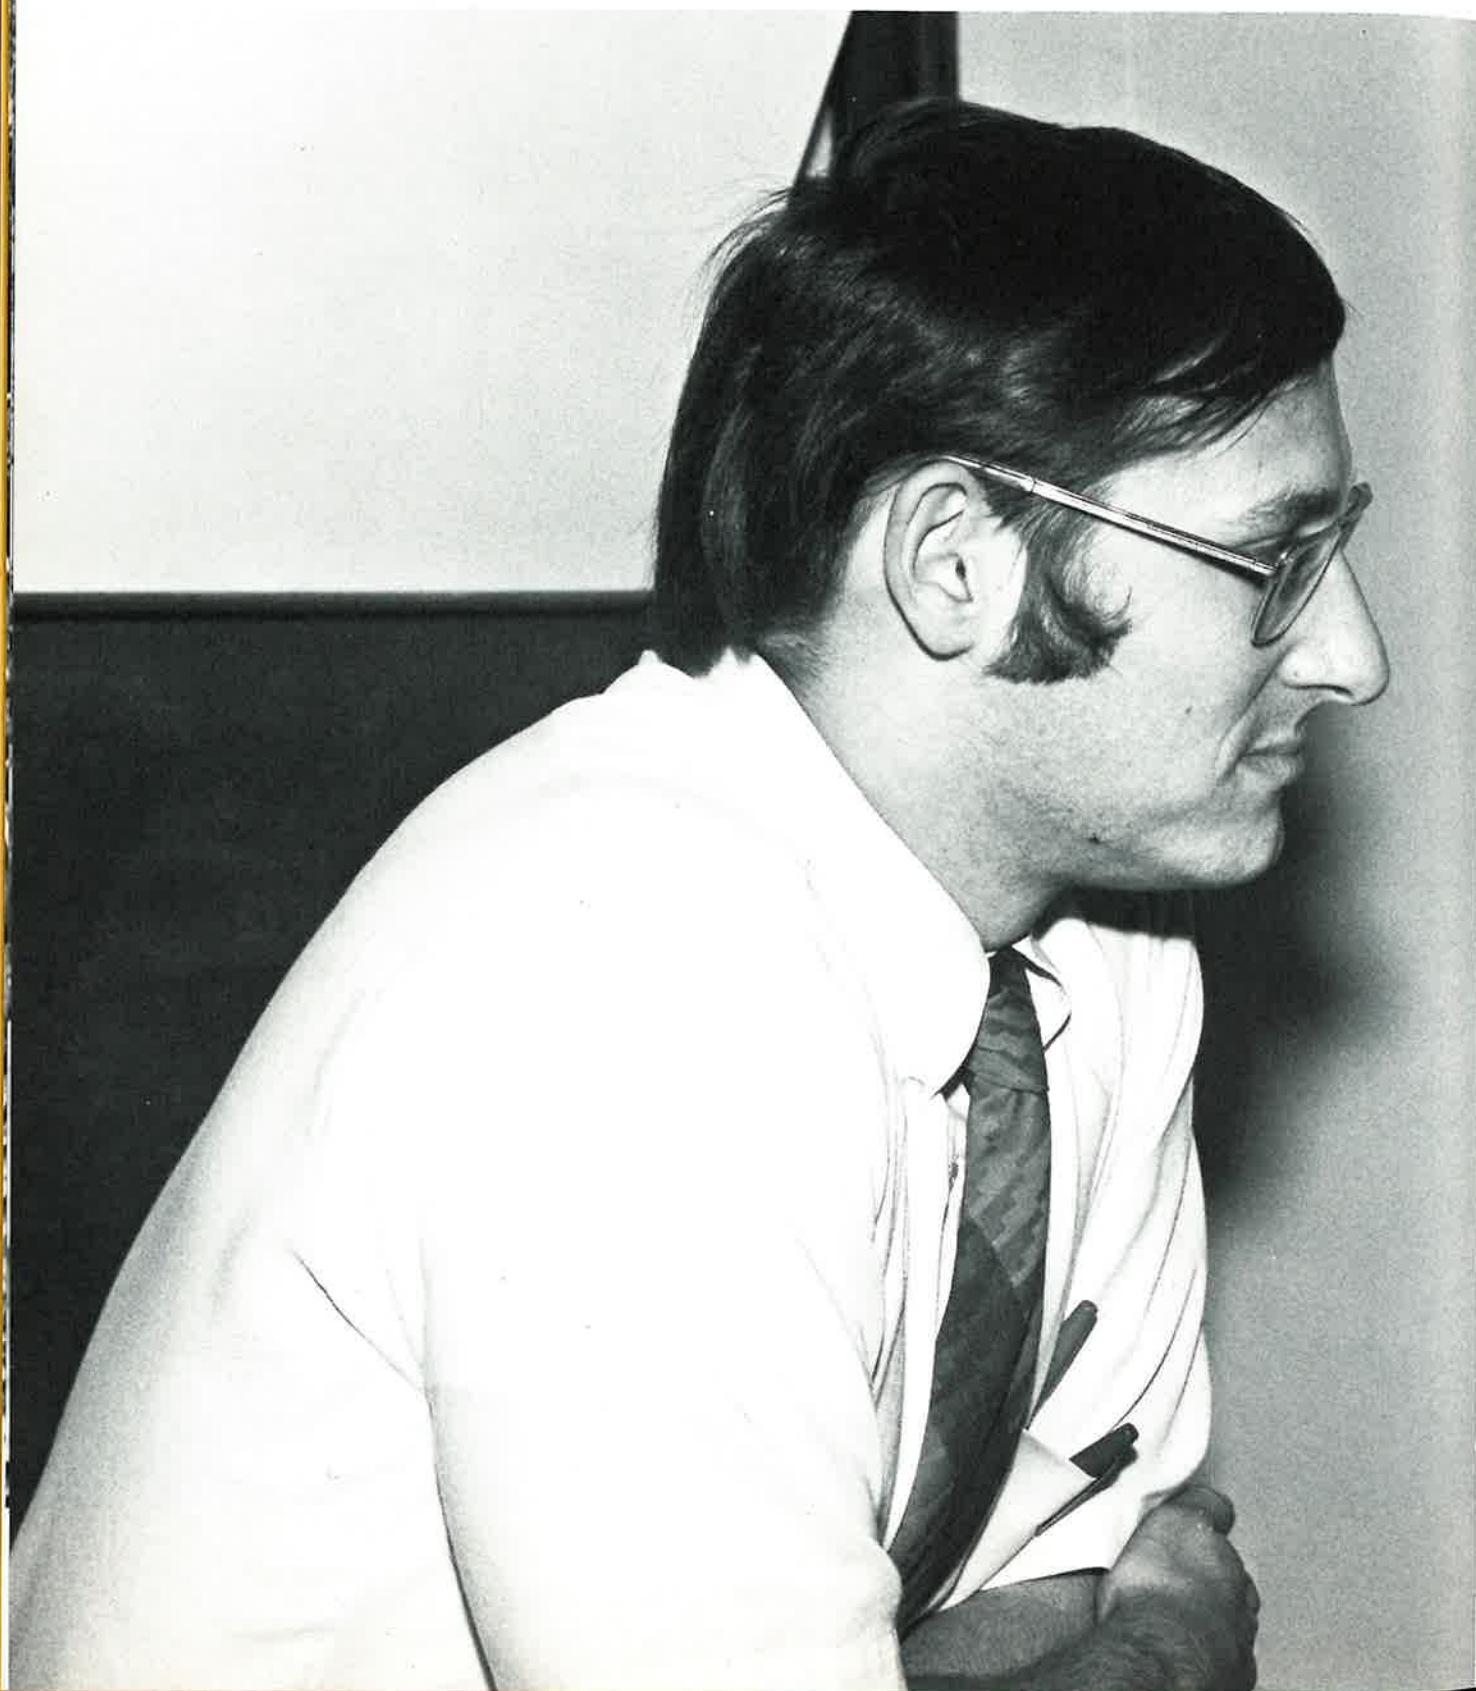

or you will learn nothing.

—Thomas Huxley

Gladly wolde he lerne, and gladly teche.

—Geoffrey Chaucer

A truly good teacher gains the respect of his students when he has extensive knowledge of his subject, coupled with the ability to convey this material in a natural way. He must create an atmosphere where the desire to learn is stimulated.

We are fortunate that there is such a teacher here at Perth. Using humor to point out our idiosyncrasies, interjecting his "For Christmas' Sake!", and relating to us accounts of his personal experiences, this man has enlivened our classes and warmed our lives. He has involved himself in our problems and made a lasting impression on our minds.

We wish to repay him, in some small measure, by dedicating our yearbook to him:

To the graduating class:

I realize now as I glance at the class pictures taken of most of you in 1962, that we have known each other for eleven years. Although most of you are easily identified, we have all changed and grown during these years. You have crowded my mind with many fond memories of both your accomplishments and your antics.

This is past now, and, like all past events should be enjoyed in quiet moments; but memories should not detract you from the difficult task ahead of you. You are faced with the job of creating a life style. Hopefully, your years at Perth Central School have provided you with some insights and skills to help you achieve your goals. Our job has been to provide part of the foundation on which you build the rest of your life. It's up to you to finish the job. You do not need me to tell you about the complexity of the challenges ahead of you. I would simply wish to thank you for your contributions to the school and the community and to wish you the very best of good fortune.

Sincerely,

John M. Fabozzi
