I Remember Yesterday And The Way We Were,

Now It Looks Like We've Made It And We May Never Pass This Way Again.

We Put Borrowed Time In A Bottle And Took Life In The Fast Lane . . .

*It Hurts
So Bad
When It's Over,*

*The First Time The Teacher Told Us Don't Cry Out Loud And Do
What You Want, Be What You Are. It Was Just What I Needed To Show Me The Way.*

The Long Run Is Still Rolling With The Changes And We're Every Which Way But Loose.

It Was Time For Us To Fly So Let's Come On And See What You've Got.

We've Learned To Ride Like The Wind Forever In Blue Jeans,

And We Sail On Down The Line.

I'm 18 And Takin' Care Of Business And The Changing Times Are Coming Up To The Grand Illusion.

*Now It's Better Than It's Ever
Been Before
And
All That You
Dream
Is Coming To The Point Of No Return*

*Our Memories
Are Like Dust In The Wind,
All Mixed Up
And The Questions
Of My Childhood
Stay
In My Life*

Now We're On The Top Of The World And Ready To Escape.

*We Can Rise Like A Freebird
And Make Our Own Stairway
To Heaven . . .
We Are The Champions . . .
We Are The Superstars . . .
Getting Ready For A Cool Change.*

We'll Make Our Own Rock And Roll Fantasy.

The Class Of 1981

The class of 1981 has the unique distinction of being the smallest class in recent memory. ("You And Me Against The World") In 1977 our school suffered a budget defeat and our sports and extra curricular program had to be abandoned. ("Roll With The Changes") As a result, we lost many of our classmates to other schools. ("Where Have All The Children Gone") Rather than defeat us, it made us more determined than ever to show everyone we could do just as well as other classes, with half the people. ("We Can Work It Out")

Our Freshman activity did not make the record's book for financial success, but we appreciated our then advisor, Miss Tuthill's help. ("If You've Got The Money I've Got The Time") We began our sophomore year with Mrs. Cetner and the hopes for bigger and better fund raising activities. We've sold everything from candy to pens to T. shirts. We fried fish and built games for our Carnival. ("Life's Been Good To Me")

Never being ones for conformity, we set aside tradition, and opted for a trip to Riverside Park and a Senior Banquet. ("Against The Wind") Through it all, we stayed together and made the most of our size. We may be small, But we're together! ("When The World Is Running Down You Make The Best Of What's Still Around")

Mr. Broncato;

The word "no" is not a part of your vocabulary. Whenever, whatever, you give of your time and yourself. You have given so much over the years to so many classes; always asking nothing in return. You've ridden busses in the dead of winter, proctored football games in zero weather, and chaperoned dances where you would have gladly exchanged "Molly Hatchet" for Glenn Miller. You've bought buttons, bumper stickers and boosters;
you've been our #1 fan and friend. You've given "The Best of Your Love", Mr. B. and the Class of '81 would like to "Thank You For Being A Friend."

Thank You

"Thank You"

*Once We Were Blind,
We Couldn't Find Our Way.
We Tried So Hard,
To See The Path Of Our Lives.
But Then A Far And Distant Light
Shined Its Way Into Our Hearts.
And We Knew We'd Never Be Alone Again.*

*Don't You Know, You Are The One?
You Put A Candle In Front Of Us
And Said "Don't Look Back
My Children".
We Know Your Caring Won't End
When We're Gone,
But Will Live In Our Souls Forever.*

*We Lived Each Day,
With You As Our Guide.
Now We've Finally Come,
Not To An End, But To A Beginning.
And As We Look Forward,
To The Dawning Of Our Dreams,
We Thank You, Sue Cetnar,
For Being A Part Of Our
"ROCK AND ROLL FANTASY".*

"The Raiders Went Down to Scully"

The Raiders went down to Scully, they were lookin' for a game to steal.

They were in a bind and way behind and willin' to make a deal. When they came across this old man lookin' at a clipboard and feelin' hot.

Ruberti jumped up on a hickory stump and said, "Krawczeski, I'll tell you what.

I bet you don't know I'm a football coach too, And if you care to take a dare I'll make a bet with you.

Now you got a pretty good defense boy, but give the Mohawks their due,

I'll bet a football of gold against your soul cause I think we're better than you."

The boy said, "My name's Danny and that might be a sin. But I'll take your bet and N- will regret cause I'm the best that's ever been."

Raiders strengthen up your arms and play this game with heart, Cause Hell's broke loose in Scully and Dicki's dealin' the cards.

If you win you get this shiny football made of gold- But if you lose Ruberti get's your soul!

Ruberti opened his mouth and said "Come on boys let's go!" And fire flew from his nostrils as his offense started the show.

Perth came up to the line of scrimmage with a defense that's out of sight,

And N- landed flat on his back lookin' up at the stadium lights. When N. finished, the Raiders said, "You're pretty bad ol' son,

Now sit down in that wheelchair right there and let Vickers show you how it's done.

The Dust . . ."

Ruberti kissed our helmets because he knew that he'd been beat, And he layed that golden football on the ground at Danny's feet.

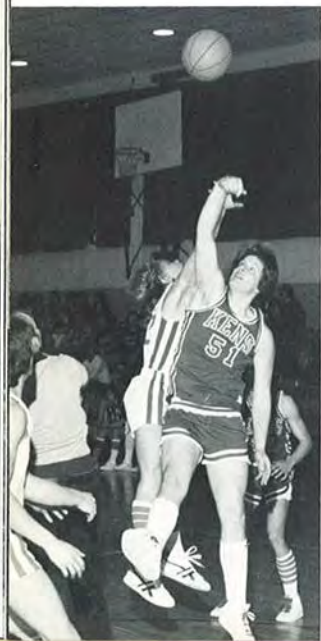

The Raiders said, "Scully just come on back if you ever wanna' try again, We told you once you son-of-a guns we're the best that's ever been."

Dear Diane, Denise, Tim, Joan, Laurie, Mary, Jon, Marc,

Goodbyes are always difficult. The right words never seem to come when you want them to. I've watched you grow up since that first day you walked into 201 in the eighth grade. You were all smiling, shining faces, bursting out with things that you wanted to say and do. We made so many plans that year! Maybe that is why it was so difficult to watch them fall to pieces when we lost so much. But somehow we managed to get it all back together, and we really believed that it was "Better Than it's Ever Been Before."

Being such a small group, we've been more like a family than a class. Like any happy family, we've had our share of disagreements. But we've also had our share of good times; times that were filled with love and laughter and secrets shared.

Each one of you means something very special to me, and I'll remember each of you in my own special way. Being your advisor has been a labor of love - and I've loved every minute of it!!!

As the song says, "We May Never Pass This Way Again"-but it is so good to know we did it right!!!

With Love,
Mrs. C.

"The Timeless Song"

The notes for love and life,
When in their proper key,
Can no other song of any year
bring meaning to its melody?

The rhythm of life so gently paced,
The harmony of love aware,
The music of time in every song,
Compassion, love, and care.

-J.A.E. (1980)
