

Unit 4: The U.S. Civil War and Reconstruction (1860 – 1877)

8th Grade Social Studies

18 Class Meetings

* Honors ***

Revised May 2023

Essential Questions

- Does the idea of compromising help our government?
- To what degree did the Civil War resolve the disputes between the North and the South?
- Why is Reconstruction considered a failure?

Enduring Understandings with Unit Goals

EU 1: The root causes of regional tensions were not corrected by the series of compromises resulting in the Civil War.

- Investigate the tensions that led to the southern states seceding from the union.
- Examine how the 1860 election of Abraham Lincoln was the tipping point for the abolition of slavery and the catalyst for war.

EU 2: The U.S. Civil War was the result of two distinctly different sets of values, both economically and socially.

- Formulate an opinion for why southerners may have believed that their way of life and economic survival were at risk.
- Evaluate primary and secondary sources about major civil war battles, people, and events.

EU 3: With the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, the path towards reconciliation and healing was impossible to achieve.

- Critique the approach President Johnson and the North took in healing the Union during Reconstruction.
- List the ways that the North tried to help recently freed slaves and incorporate them as free citizens.

Standard

CT Social Studies Frameworks Standards:

- INQ 6–8.12 Present adaptations of arguments and explanations on topics of interest to others to reach audiences and venues outside the classroom using print and oral technologies (e.g., posters, essays, letters, debates, speeches, reports, and maps) and digital technologies (e.g., Internet, social media, and digital documentary).
- INQ 6–8.15 Draw on multiple disciplinary lenses to analyze how a specific problem can manifest itself at local, regional, and global levels over time, identifying its characteristics and causes, and the challenges and opportunities faced by those trying to address the problem.
- INQ 6.8.11 Construct explanations using reasoning, correct sequences, examples, and details with relevant information and data, while acknowledging the strengths and weaknesses of the explanations.
- HIST 8.1 Analyze connections among events and developments in historical contexts.

- W.8.2: Write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas, concepts, and information through the selection, organization, and analysis of relevant content.
- W.8.5: With some guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on how well purpose and audience have been addressed.
- WHST.6-8.4: Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.

ISAAC Vision of the Graduate Competencies

Competency 1: Write effectively for a variety of purposes.

Competency 2: Speak to diverse audiences in an accountable manner.

Competency 3: Develop the behaviors needed to interact and contribute with others on a team.

Competency 4: Analyze and solve problems independently and collaboratively.

Competency 5: Be responsible, creative, and empathetic members of the community.

Unit Content Overview

1. “A house divided against itself cannot stand.” – Abraham Lincoln
  - Westward expansion and compromises that allowed slavery to continue led to violence.
  - The election of Abraham Lincoln in 1860 was a breaking point for southern states.
2. “War is the remedy that our enemies have chosen, and I say let us give them all they want.” – Gen. William Tecumseh Sherman
  - Loyalty to the southern way of life superseded loyalty to the country for most.
  - The Union Army was vastly better equipped and had more men but was mismanaged on the battlefield.
  - “Total War” is waged due to the industrialization of weaponry and communications.
