Committee Reports

Audit Committee - There will be an external audit presentation this evening. Have not met since our last meeting.
Facilities Committee - Next meeting scheduled for the 1st Monday in November at Thayer house for this month's past activities
Policy Committee - Meeting scheduled for this Wednesday night at 6:30 pm in the Thayer house board room. At our request the director of athletics along with a coach will be attending the meeting.
Technology Committee - Mac day happened in the city and there were teachers and administrators that went. We haven't met since that day. We have provided the board with a draft and it is premature to talk about it tonight as the draft was just given to them. We will be looking at what some of the criteria's will be for our members,

Superintendent's Report - Commendations

The Superintendent along with the board members acknowledged some of our outstanding students.

Blake Woods - Semifinalist in the National Achievement Scholarship Program. Blake was presented with a certificate from the school district and was photographed with the board of education. Could not make the last meeting as he was at MIT for a whole weekend event. MIT is interested in recruiting him so they flew him up to show him around the campus.
Samantha Smith - Commended Student Scholar in the National Achievement Program and All-National Honor Musician. Samantha was presented with certificates from the school district and was photographed with the board of education. Was also acknowledged for being selected as this years' homecoming queen.
Ryan Carmody - All National Honor Musician. Ryan was presented with a certificate from the school district and was photographed with the board of education

Updates - Nawrocki Smith LLP - Audit Report Presentation

Mr. Mike Nawrocki thanked the board of education, administration and the community for the continued confidence in using the firm as the district external auditors. Mike went over the results of the 2014 fiscal audit. A summary of the 2014 fiscal audit. A summary of the report was given to the board and copies were available for the community. He answered questions as they were addressed.
