PRESENTATIONS:

1. Mrs. Nomi Rosen presented a brief overview of her visit to Beijing China. Upon her return from China, and after confirmation with Dr. Aronstein, she invited the educators to visit the Glen Cove School District. The delegation from China, consisting of four educators who are visiting the Glen Cove Schools during the week of February 5th, presented a DVD that highlighted the education offered to their students. Through an interpreter, the visitors expressed their appreciation for this cultural exchange and they presented the administration and members of the Board with prints of traditional Chinese paintings.
2. Ian Goldin, Patrick Cunningham and Andrew Carpenter are part of a team of thirteen students from Glen Cove High School who are reaching out to the community for help in raising funds to refurbish the High School auditorium and the Wunsch Arts Center.
3. Mr. Jeff Yagaloff, K-12 Coordinator of English Language Arts, and Dr. Shari Camhi, presented an overview of various curricula and instructional initiatives that are taking place this year. They addressed questions from the Board members and members of the audience regarding the presentation.

Superintendent's Report

Dr. Aronstein reported on the following items:

1. The first draft of the 2007/2008 school budget will be presented at the Board Meeting on Monday, February 12, 2007.
2. Superintendent's Conference Day has been changed from Tuesday, March 20th to Friday, March 23rd. Dr. Ferguson will be presenting his findings from the Tripod Project survey.
3. The Evenings of Open Discussion will be on Wednesday, February 28th at Connolly School and on Monday, March 5th at Landing School. Both sessions will be conducted from 7:30 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Mrs. Sucharski encouraged everyone to attend the Community Scholarship Dinner Dance honoring Linda Perlman on March 11th being held at the Metropolitan in Glen Cove.
