Stakeholder Engagement in the LCAP Process

- Districts must engage stakeholders in the LCAP process & must demonstrate in their LCAP how, over time, the involvement of stakeholders has supported improved outcomes for students
- Districts are required to consult with, or seek advice from the following stakeholder groups, per Education Code (EC) 52060(g):
 - Teachers
 - Principals
 - Administrators & other school personnel
 - Local bargaining units of the school district
 - Parents
 - Pupils

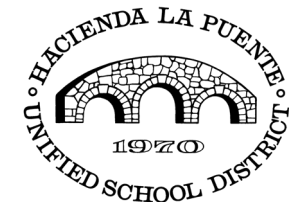

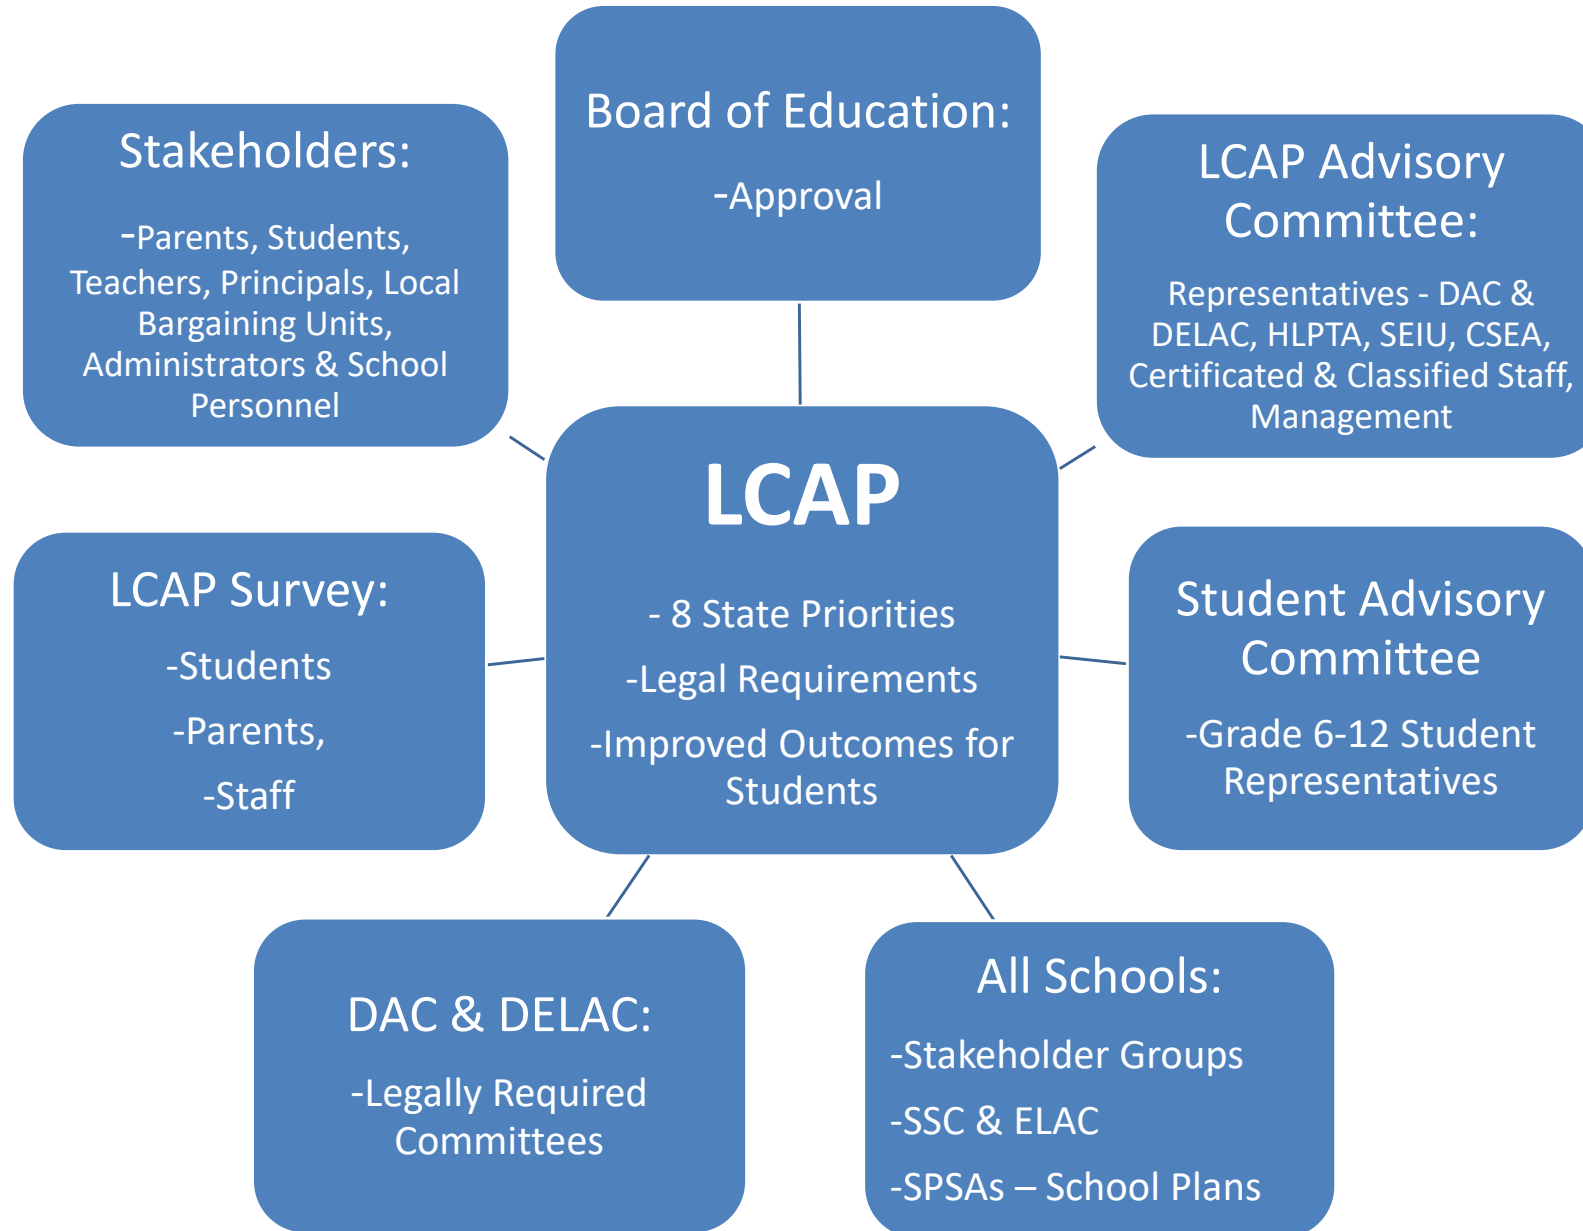

LCAP Consultation Process: Required Advisory Committees

- Two LCAP advisory committees are required by law
 - Districts are required to establish a parent advisory committee
 - Districts with at least 15% and at least 50 English Learners must also establish an English learner advisory committee
 - Existing committees may be used for this purpose if they meet the requirements for these committees
- HLPUSD's two required LCAP advisory committees are:
 - District Advisory Committee (DAC)
 - District English Learner Advisory Committee (DELAC)
