

St. Mark's Episcopal School in Palm Beach Gardens, Florida is seeking the school's next Head of Preschool starting July 1, 2023.

St. Mark's, established in 1979, is a coeducational parish day school, serving approximately 476 students from age two through Grade 8 in Palm Beach Gardens, Florida. The foundation of the St. Mark's program is to provide students with balanced exposure to academics, arts, athletics, and spiritual life. At all levels, our students will be as our mission states, academically enriched in a nurturing Christian environment.

Reporting to the Head of School, a member of the administrative team, and with the support of the Heads of Lower and Middle School, the Head of Preschool is responsible for managing the day-to-day operations of the Preschool for PK2 through PK4 students. The Head of the Preschool is a dynamic instructional leader with a solid understanding of the developmental and curricular needs of the division. The Head of the Preschool works collaboratively to inspire diverse, well-rounded and adaptable students to achieve, serve, and lead and to support the continual growth and development of St. Mark's Episcopal School.

The Head of Preschool functions as the chief articulator of the division's programs, expectations, behavioral guidelines, and other information necessary for the smooth running of the division; reviews and evaluates the academic program and collaborates with the Curriculum Coordinator in the horizontal and vertical curricular flow; observes, supervises, and evaluates an outstanding Preschool faculty; makes recommendations to the Head of School regarding the hiring, retention, and assignment of faculty; assists in the admissions process for student enrollment, supports the advancement and development of the school; and is a visible presence in all areas of the school.

Ideal candidates will have an advanced degree, a collaborative, joyful spirit, a strong understanding of child development, and excellent communication skills.
