

Jean Pagnone and her husband Louis have called the Dry Creek area home for over 17 years and are parents to two teens, Eva and Luca. For Jean, family is everything.

Jean is a well-respected, thriving local business owner. Her time in Placer County has allowed her the privilege of supporting causes and candidates that are important to her community - from schools to charitable organizations to elected officials who affect individuals' day-to-day lives. In addition to her duties as a Dry Creek Trustee, she serves the community as a board member of the Placer County Taxpayers Association and the West Placer MAC. Jean is committed to providing an education that values the success of every child while honoring parental rights and supporting teachers.
