Help Prepare Your Child by

1. Going to interesting places such as the beach, park, zoo, airport, farm or lake.
2. Encourage your children to observe and talk about their experiences, as conversations with adults who care enrich a child's vocabulary and understanding of world.
3. Make eye contact with your child while listening to them speak, showing them that you value what they say.
4. Expose your child to many kinds of literature by reading to them daily.
5. Praise and encourage your child's efforts and curiosity, knowing that from mistakes come learning and confidence. Criticism can discourage children from trying new things and lower self confidence.

How to make sure your child loves to read...

Read, Read, Read! Read as much to your child as possible. Try different stories so that he/she may find a favorite type of book

Even if your child is not reading the correct words, praise them for attempting to read!

Ask simple questions after a story has been read.
(What was the story about? Who was in the story?)

Let your child follow the words that you read with their finger.

Don't force them to read words that are too hard. Help by modeling how to sound a word out.
