

PART-TIME, HOME-BASED, OR OFF CAMPUS SCHOLARS: 3114P

HOME-BASED INSTRUCTION:

Home-based instruction may be provided by a parent who lives in the District boundaries and who has filed a declaration of intent, annually, with the District by September 15th, or within two weeks of the beginning of any quarter, trimester, or semester.

Parents must have 45 college credits, not in any specific area, or complete an approved home-schooling course. Approved home-schooling courses are provided by community/vocational colleges or through the Washington Homeschool Organization.

If a parent does not meet the above standards, they may have the scholar supervised by a teacher certificated in the State of Washington. The parent is responsible for selecting and paying for such supervision.

ANCILLARY SERVICES:

Ancillary services shall mean any cocurricular service or activity, any health care service or activity, and any other services or activities, except courses for or in which preschool through twelfth grade students are enrolled by a public school. The term shall include, but not limited to, counseling, psychological services, testing, remedial instruction, speech and hearing therapy, health care services, tutorial services such as home or hospital instruction for the physically disabled, and sports activities; course shall mean any instructional curricular service or activity in which preschool through twelfth grade students are enrolled by a public school.

In order to access ancillary services, a parent/guardian shall contact their scholar's home school and enroll their scholar in the District.

If a scholar is enrolled in the District for any ancillary services, the District will determine a scholar's appropriate grade or course level placement.

If a home-based scholar is enrolled for ancillary services, the District will claim the scholar as enrolled for purposed of state financial support.

Transportation is the responsibility of the parent. If the student lives in an area served by FWPS buses, and the course is scheduled at a time that corresponds with the bus schedule, the student may ride the bus.