DISCUSSION AND POSSIBLE ACTION ITEMS

- Welcome - Welcome everybody and thank you for being here.
- Principal Report - Today was the first of 3 days prepping for the return of students on Thursday, April 1. Thank you to PAF for providing breakfast and lunch. Thursday will be "A" group day this week only. "B" group will be on Friday. It is important for parents to sign up for daily health screening.
- TOSA Update - Making good progress with our interviews for new teachers. We have good candidates. DELF will be organized by Ketsia this year.
- Classified Rep Report - Classified staff is ready to support the return of students any way they can.
- Certificated Rep Report - We have 40 different languages represented at our school. Would it be possible to obtain flags of these countries, possibly from embassies? Ideas to be considered and thought about.
- Community Member Report - Working to help the superintendent interview committee understand charter schools and how they are critical to our district. Continuing to address the improvement of the CBEST process for our French teachers.
- PAF Report - PAF is ready to provide any support needed as students return to school. There will be some openings on the PAF board next year. These will be advertised and need to be filled before the end of the year so the new members are fully on board before the beginning of the new school year. Additionally, there will be a Parent Representative opening for SAB.

- Public Relations and Community Outreach - Everybody is ready for Thursday.
 - Information management: Helpful and not, any mis-information that you may hear, please check in with Evelyn.

MEETING ADJOURNMENT at 5:26p.m.

TO BE INCLUDED ON NEXT AGENDA: New SAB member.
