DISCUSSION AND POSSIBLE ACTION ITEMS

- Welcome and Introductions - Welcome everybody and thank you for being here.
- Principal Report - Entire staff is working very hard to be ready to have school return KA-6th on April 1 for hybrid learning.

Welcome to our new permanent 4th grade teacher Sophie Faugier. She is arriving tonight and will hopefully be ready to work by Spring break after quarantine and miscellaneous business are completed. Thank you to the many people who worked very hard to get her J1 visa approved.

Let's Go Learn assessments have been completed.

District will be offering summer school and we hope to be offering immersion summer school.

- Return to School Plan - Each site has had to prepare to return to school with a hybrid plan. Evelyn shared our SRFACS plan, to be presented at the 2/24/21 School Board meeting for approval.

- TOSA Update - February has been MultiCultural month and it has been going very well. A round of interviews has been scheduled for new teachers. A streamlined HR process for our French teachers would be very valuable.
- Classified Rep Report - Fenise Souverain and Jackie Elward shared information about their home countries with students for multicultural month.
- PAF Report - PAF is ready to support families for the return to school as needed. Brainstorming various ways to engage families.
- Certificated Rep Report - None at this time
- Public Relations and Community Outreach
 - Lottery update - Virtual lottery will be March 4.
 - Sub recruitment through SAB members - Reach out to people you know in the French community to find substitutes. Requirements can be found on the SCOE website.
