WILL ROGERS SCHOOL RULES

Classroom Rules

The campus rules for Rogers are designed to assist students with academic achievement. These basic rules include, but are not limited to the following:

1. Attend school on time daily
2. Participate in class daily
3. Use planner daily
4. Be prepared for class every day
5. Complete all homework, projects and assignments
6. No Gum at school

(Each teacher will establish specific classroom rules.)

Detention

1. Teachers are permitted, per Ed Code, to keep a student after school for 20 minutes for detention
2. As part of our Progressive Discipline Program, Rogers assigns lunch detention and Thursday School

Progressive Discipline Policy

Rogers has adopted a progressive discipline policy which consists of the following graduated consequences:

1st Offense	Warning
2nd Offense	Teacher/Student Conference
3rd Offense	Teacher/Parent Call
4th Offense	Teacher/Parent/Student Conference

Please note that although the Progressive Discipline Policy allows for consequences to increase incrementally, serious infractions that violate the California Education Code 48900 authorize the principal or designee to recommend suspension and/or expulsion.

CA. Code of Regulations (5CCR) 300 - requires pupils to conform to school regulations; obey all directions; be diligent in studies and respectful to teachers and others in authority; and refrain from the use of profane and vulgar language. Please note –

California Education Code 48915(c) mandates the principal to recommend expulsion for any of the following acts:

1. Sale, possession, or furnishing a firearm
2. Brandishing a knife at another person
3. Selling a controlled substance
4. Sexual assault or sexual battery
5. Possession of an explosive

Rogers' rules exist to provide a safe learning environment for our students. Consequences to these actions will range from detention, suspension, parent conference, parent classroom visitation, and/or recommendation for expulsion. The consequences will depend on the severity, frequency, and the circumstances of the case. All families receive a copy of the schools Rules and Exceptions along with the District Handbook with registration materials. All school rules and policies are in addition to those stated in the District Handbook.
