

Mary Margaret Nuzum

Outstanding service to the school and the community as a teacher

Mary Nuzum received her Bachelor's degree in the College of Fine Arts and her Master's in Elementary Education from Ohio University. Mary was the vocal and handbell teacher at Warren for over thirty years before retiring. Her students received opportunities to perform at large arenas, on cruise ships and several larger cities. Mary devoted countless hours for her students teaching them life skills far beyond the classroom.

Mary:

- Ohio Music Educators Association member
- Delta Kappa Gamma chapter participant
- Volunteers at several churches and nursing homes
- Mentor and Praxis Assessor
- Large group as well as solo and ensemble judge
- Volunteer with athletic boosters
