

All of the following writing samples were done independently. The narrative writing samples are from the end of October, which is the end of the first trimester. The opinion writing samples are from the middle of January. The informational writing samples are from the end of February, which is the beginning of the third trimester. The sample number relates to the rubric score that each piece of writing received.