

Story 16

My name is D and I am a bear I live in the jungle.

First, he went to The desert he ment a sidew inder. Then, he went to the city he ment a little mouse. Next he went to the beach he ment a crab
b. Finally he went to the beach.

Unit 3 Narrative Writing Prompt

Imagine you are a forest animal and you want to travel somewhere like Alex. Write a narrative explaining what happens first, next, then, and finally.

Narrative Writing Rubric Score Rationale for Second Grade Score of 2

This writing sample received an overall rubric score of 2. The writing is somewhat developed. It has few details, but it does not have a logical sequence of events. The writing describes going to the beach in two different events. It has many mistakes in grammar, sentence structure, and punctuation which hinder the overall meaning.

Units 1–10 Assessments

4-Point Scoring Rubrics

Informative/Explanatory Writing

4	The response is well developed. It includes accurate information from the source(s). The writer uses conventions of grammar and sentence structure correctly and has few or no mistakes in capitalization, punctuation, and spelling.
3	The response is adequately developed. It includes accurate information from the source(s). The writer makes a few mistakes in grammar and conventions, but they do not hinder meaning.
2	The response is somewhat developed. It includes some accurate information from the source(s). The writer makes many mistakes in grammar and conventions, which hinder the overall meaning.
1	The response is undeveloped. It shows no understanding of the information in the source(s). The writer rarely uses correct grammar or conventions, which hinders the overall meaning.
0	The response does not fit the writing prompt or is incomplete.