

OAKWOOD SCHOOL

TRANSFORMING LIVES...REALIZING POSSIBILITIES

Oakwood School, located in Annandale, VA, is accepting applications for teachers with appropriate training to serve students with specific learning disabilities. Oakwood School is a private 1st-8th grade, co-ed day school for bright students with learning differences.

An appropriate candidate should understand multisensory teaching methods, diverse learning styles, and possess specific strategies for teaching students with learning differences including dyslexia. Candidates should also demonstrate positive classroom management techniques for students with a variety of language-based learning disabilities, including processing challenges, dysgraphia, and attentional issues.

Oakwood School has a state-of-the-art facility with renovated classrooms specifically designed for an optimum learning environment. School Administration is structured to provide regular professional development, coaching, and support to teachers.

Responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- Independently lead small groups in math and reading
- Team-teach up to 12 students in science and social studies
- Communicate regularly with families about student progress
- Completion of monthly, quarterly, and semi-annual student progress documents
- Attendance at weekly Collaboration Meetings with cohort teachers & Academic Leadership
- Work collaboratively on a multidisciplinary team to support student success

Required Qualifications:

- Eligibility for a Virginia Teaching License with endorsement in Special Education or Learning Disabilities
- Bachelor's Degree from an accredited college
- 2-3 years of special education classroom teaching experience

Preferred Qualifications:

- Current Virginia Teaching License with endorsement in Special Education or Learning Disabilities
- Master's Degree in the field of Special Education or related field
- Orton-Gillingham training or certification

Serious, qualified candidates should submit a cover letter, teaching application, and resume to jobs@oakwoodschool.com.