

Gold Hill Middle School: School Improvement Council

Tuesday, March 21, 2023

- Attendance:
 - Aaron Duda, Richard Eppes, Jennifer Isenhour, Chrissy Tolentino, Scot Kiggans,, Angie Harms, Aaron Thrasher, Dave Cheske, Caryn Scroggs
 - Absent: Erin Webster, Leslie Shrum, Sherri Severance, Maggie Bowers, Laura Green, Alicia Dasch
- Approval of Minutes
 - Motion to approve: Eppes
 - Second: Harms
- Gold Hill Middle School Update/Report from Principals
 - Mr. Duda congratulated Mrs. Isenhour and the 8th Grade Band on an outstanding showing at Concert Performance Assessment. Students earned the highest rating from all judges, a "Superior with Distinction"
 - Kickball Tournament coming up
 - Bulldog Family Fun Night
 - Rescheduled FBI guest speaker to April 26th
 - Rescheduled rising 9th grade tours April 17th
 - 3rd Quarter Honor Roll Students, higher than 2nd quarter
 - Bulldog Shake competition next week (Tuesday, 3/28 in the evening)
- Discussion of potential SIC goals
 - BFF Night - Friday, March 3rd showing of "Hop"
 - Concessions Covered
 - Angie making donation signs
 - 5pm is concession set up
 - Gates open at 5:30pm
 - No emphasis on rising 6th grade (events planned at elementary)
- Discussion of Teacher Recognition Ideas - Follow Up
 - Need a list of teacher years of service (1, 5, 10, 15, 20, 25)
 - Stump will share that information with Mr. Duda and Mrs. Tolentino
- PTO Update
- Open Discussion/New Items
 - Parent Letter is distributed in April. Mrs. Scroggs will be working on that.
 - Lockers: Bookbags are incredibly heavy. Can we utilize lockers?

- Teachers have been really purposeful in paring down needed materials. Are all materials in the backpack necessary?
- Biggest problem with lockers - amount of people, as well as size of hallways.