

ENERGY MANAGEMENT: 6810

The District recognizes the responsibility to develop and maintain programs to support the conservation of energy and natural resources. In recognition of this leadership responsibility, the District shall strive to institute an effective resource management program. All building users are expected to participate in conservation practices.

Legal References: WAC 236-200-040 Energy life cycle cost analysis/energy conservation report fees