Juvenile Court and Community School – Summit School

The main purpose of the Juvenile Court and Community School – Summit School (JCCS) program is to help offer a wide variety of educational programs to ensure that all students in the county have an opportunity to succeed and excel, both academically and personally.

The JCCS program is run by the San Diego County Office of Education, which places eligible students in one of several Summit Court School locations throughout San Diego.

Students are placed in the Summit program in one of the following ways:

- Through the expulsion process OR through probation
- Through School Attendance Review Board (SARB), if parent agrees to the placement.

For more information on the North County Juvenile Court and Community Schools, visit the San Diego County Office of Education Website: <http://www.sdcoe.net/jccs2/?loc=north&m=1>

Most students return to their traditional schools following expulsion. Some students, however, complete their graduation through Summit.
