Employers

- Companies may have scholarships available to the children of employees
- Companies may have educational benefits for their employees

Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA®)

- A standard form that collects demographic and financial information about the student and family
- May be filed electronically or using paper form
 - Available in English and Spanish

© 2017 NASFAA Slide 21

- Information used to calculate the expected family contribution (EFC)
 - Amount of money a student and his or her family may reasonably be expected to contribute towards the cost of the student's education for an academic year
- Colleges use EFC to award financial aid

FAFSA

- May be filed at any time during an academic year, but no earlier than October 1st prior to the academic year for which the student requests aid
- For the 2018–19 academic year, the FAFSA may be filed beginning October 1, 2017
- Most colleges set FAFSA filing deadlines

Reasons to Use FAFSA on the Web

- Built-in edits to prevent costly errors
- Skip-logic allows student and/or parent to skip unnecessary questions
- Option to use Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Data Retrieval Tool to import tax data

Reasons to Use FAFSA on the Web

- More timely submission of original application and any necessary corrections
- More detailed instructions and “help” for common questions
- Ability to check application status online
- Simplified application process in the future

IRS Data Retrieval Tool

- While completing FOTW, applicant may submit real-time request to IRS for tax data
- IRS will authenticate taxpayer's identity
- If match found, IRS sends real-time results to applicant in new browser window
- Applicant chooses whether or not to transfer data to FOTW

IRS Data Retrieval Tool

- Available October 2017 for 2018–19 processing cycle
- Participation is voluntary
- Reduces documents requested by financial aid office

IRS Data Retrieval Tool

- Some will be unable to use the IRS DRT
- Examples include:
 - No Social Security Number (SSN) was entered
 - Student or parent married, but filed separately

FSA ID

- Sign FAFSA electronically
- Not required, but speeds up processing
- May be used by students and parents throughout aid process, including subsequent school year
- Only the owner should create a FSA ID

Create a New FSA ID

New to FSA? Create an FSA ID account below. An FSA ID gives you access to Federal Student Aid's online systems and can serve as your legal signature.

Only create an FSA ID using your own personal information and for your own exclusive use. You are not authorized to create an FSA ID on behalf of someone else, including a family member.

You are not allowed to have an employee or agent of a commercial entity, or other third party, create an FSA ID for you for any purposes including but not limited to: payment reductions, debt consolidation or applying for aid. Misrepresentation of your identity to the federal government could result in criminal or civil penalties.

Important: When you are done click the CANCEL button to clear your data, even if you did not finish creating your FSA ID. Just closing your browser window or going to another website may not be enough to prevent other people using this computer from seeing your information until the session expires.

FAFSA Processing Results

Central Processing System (CPS) notifies student of FAFSA processing results by:

- Paper Student Aid Report (SAR) if paper FAFSA filed and student's email address is blank
- SAR Acknowledgement if filed FAFSA on the Web and student's email address is blank

FAFSA Processing Results

- CPS notifies student of FAFSA processing results by:
 - Email notification containing a direct link to student's online SAR, if student's email was provided on paper or electronic FAFSA
- Student with FSA ID may view SAR online at www.fafsa.gov

FAFSA Processing Results

- Institutional Student Information Record (ISIR) sent to colleges listed on FAFSA approximately 10 to 14 days after FAFSA is submitted
- College reviews ISIR
 - May request additional documentation

Student Aid Report or Student Aid Report Acknowledgement

- Review data for accuracy and correct any errors
- Update estimated tax information when actual figures become available

Making Corrections

If necessary, corrections to FAFSA data may be made by:

- Using FAFSA on the Web (www.fafsa.gov) if student has a FSA ID;
- Updating paper SAR (SAR Information Acknowledgement cannot be used to make corrections); or
- Submitting documentation to college's financial aid office

Special Circumstances

- Cannot be documented using FAFSA
- Send written explanation and documentation to financial aid office at each college
- College will review and request additional information if necessary
- Decisions are final and cannot be appealed to U.S. Department of Education

© 2017 NASFAA Slide 44

Special Circumstances

- Change in income
- Change in employment status
- Unusual medical expenses not covered by insurance
- Change in parent marital status
- Unusual dependent care expenses
- Student cannot obtain parental information
