Course Description

Library Enrichment strives to connect, extend, and reinforce classroom English Language Arts concepts and practices with library skills, materials, and lessons. In third grade, focus continues on literary key ideas and details, parts of sentences and speech, and applying information from text to infer and predict outcomes. Grammar and writing skills/conventions such as antonyms, interpreting text features, and summarizing are practiced and explored as found in library texts. In addition to fiction and nonfiction texts, students use online resources and materials to review and extend skills.
