Simi Valley Schools
SIMI VALLEY UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT

School Year 2022-2023 Public Media Release for the California Universal Meal Program

Students Will Be Offered Breakfast and Lunch Free of Charge Starting August 10, 2022

The Simi Valley Unified School District (SVUSD) will roll out the California Universal Meals Program beginning with the 2022 - 2023 school year to ensure all students have access to two nutritious meals each school day (one breakfast and one lunch). Starting on August 10, 2022, all SVUSD schools will offer their students free breakfast and lunch meals in order to equitably provide and encourage all students to eat nutritious meals each day.

Breakfast will be offered before school at: Arroyo ES, Atherwood ES, Berylwood ES, Big Springs ES, Crestview ES, Garden Grove ES, Hollow Hills ES, Justin Early Learners Academy (JELA), Knolls, ES, Madera ES, Mountain View ES, Park View ES, Santa Susana ES, Sycamore ES, Township ES, Vista ES, White Oak ES, and all middle and high school sites.

Breakfasts will be offered during recess or break at: Berylwood ES, Katherine ES, Mountain view ES, Royal HS, Simi Valley HS, Sinaloa MS, and Wood Ranch ES.

Related Links:

https://www.cde.ca.gov/ls/nu/sn/cauniversalmeals.asp

The Child Nutrition department is committed to providing healthy school meals to the students of the Simi Valley Unified School District in order to support student academic success and promote healthful eating habits that lead to lifelong positive nutrition practices. Simi Valley Unified School District is home to nearly 16,000 students and more than 6,500 lunches are served each school day.

We strive to meet or exceed the meal standards recommended by the Healthy Hunger-Free Kids Act of 2010. Our menus include fresh fruit, vegetables, whole-grain rich products, fat-free and low-fat milk, lower levels of sodium, saturated fat and zero trans fat in our meals.

For additional information please contact: TL Mikulus, Simi Valley Unified School District Child Nutrition, 101 W. Cochran Street, Simi Valley, CA 93065, 805-306-4500 ext. 4702, terri.mikulus@simivalleyusd.org.

This institution is an equal opportunity provider.