Samuel Slater Experience

31 Ray St, Webster, MA 01570

[samuel Slaterexperience.org](http://samuel Slaterexperience.org)

508-461-2955

Webster Museums Incorporated was founded in 2017 as a 501 (c) (3) to foster public knowledge about the history of the American Industrial Revolution in New England. The organization's first project was the creation of the Samuel Slater Museum in Webster, a historical museum which focuses on textile manufacturing and the life and work of Samuel Slater (1768 – 1835), called by some the "Father of the American Industrial Revolution." In 2017, our organization obtained the use of the old Webster Armory on 31 Ray Street in Webster, MA. Renovations and collection gathering are in process: we opened in 2021.

Hours: Friday and Saturday 10 am to 4 pm, Sunday noon to 4 pm, last admission at 3 pm

Admission (with pass): Free for up to four people
