

Summer 2023 Reading Choice Board

Mrs. Albrecht's Sixth Grade English

As you read Insignificant Events in the Life of a Cactus by Dusti Bowling, make sure the text makes sense to you. If it doesn't slow down and re-read. Ask an adult to help you figure out what is happening. If you find hard words you don't understand, look them up in a dictionary. You are to complete this assignment just like a Tic-tac-toe board. You must complete at least two activities. Everyone will complete the middle square in class. You need to choose two activities to complete before school starts. You can go horizontal, vertical, diagonal, or even blackout the whole board if you want! Assignments should be handwritten or hand-drawn by you. Your work is due Monday, August 14.

Did this book remind you of another book you have read? Write a paragraph connecting this novel to something else you have read.	If the book had a sequel, what do you think would happen? Write a paragraph telling what should happen next.	Would you recommend this book to a friend? Why or why not? What would you say about this book? Write a book review in a well-written paragraph.
What is the main conflict or problem in the story? Answer in a well-written paragraph.	Everyone will take the Accelerated Reader test in class during the first week of school.   	List 5 major events in the book in the order that they happened.
Draw a picture of three of the characters in the book. Be sure to include details you found in the text.	Make a map showing at least three locations in the book. Be sure to include details from the text.	List at least three sensory details from the book. Look for passages when a character saw, tasted, smelled, heard, or felt something specific. Copy the sentence and the page number for each detail.

