BULLYING

Is a student being a bully?

Sometimes a student can be a bully because of the things they say or write down. Sometimes a student can be a bully because of the things they do. A student might be a bully if they:

- Say things that hurt your feelings.
- Call you names.
- Say scary things to you.
- Try to make you feel scared.
- Tell you they are going to hurt you.
- Tease you a lot.
- Tell other kids bad things about you.
- Tell other kids not to play with you or talk to you.
- Give you a mean letter or note.
- Make mean faces at you.
- Hit, kick, slap, punch, or pinch you.
- Try to hurt your body.
- Make you do something that you do not want to do.
- Tell you lies.

What should you do if someone you know is being a bully?

If someone is being a bully at school or on the bus, you should tell your teacher or an adult at school right away.

What will the school do?

The school will investigate the situation.

Sometimes the school will have a meeting with the bully's parents.

Sometimes the school will take fun things away from the bully.

Sometimes the bully will have to stay home for a few days.

Sometimes a police person will need to talk to the bully.
