UPPER SCHOOL SUMMER READING ASSIGNMENT

This summer we will be reading one assigned book and one book of choice.

1. The Assigned Text: This is required reading for incoming students

Grade 6 - Shiloh by Phyllis Reynolds Naylor

Grade 7 - Among the Hidden, by Margaret Haddix

Grade 8 - Pictures of Hollis Woods, by Patricia Reilly Giff

The assigned book for each grade will be discussed in September and followed by the first “build-an-essay” project of the year. It will focus on central themes and literary elements used by the author. No preparation is necessary. Just enjoy the book!!!!

2. Free choice - Read any book, fiction or nonfiction, that is not part of a series.

Your assignment will require you to share your reading experience with the class in September. You will tell us the title, author, genre and give a brief plot summary. Then you will tell us what you thought of the book. Finally, you will answer questions from classmates about the book. You will be permitted to have the book and a notecard for your presentation.

You might want to take a vacation from your usual reading habits and choose a genre with which you have had no experience. (Biography, Historical Fiction, Sci-Fi, Fantasy, Non-Fiction)

You might have an interest in a topic and choose a non-fiction book as a research tool.

You might want to check with friends and families for book recommendations.
