THE OFFICIAL NEWSLETTER OF TRINITY AREA SCHOOL DISTRICT
HOME OF THE HILLERS!

MAY 2022-2023

That's A Wrap...

Dear Parents / Guardians and Students,

As the 2022-2023 school year closes, I want to thank you sincerely for your contributions to our wonderful Hiller community. Your hard work and commitment to excellence has once again resulted in another successful school year filled with exciting changes, new construction projects, and numerous opportunities for learning. Working together with you, the District has closed learning gaps, overcome challenges, and made a positive difference for all students, teachers, and staff.

Since August, we have initiated a large-scale construction project on campus. Currently, Trinity Middle School is being renovated, and a wing for students in grades 4 and 5 is being built. This new Intermediate School will be ready for the 2024-2025 school year, and students and teachers are looking forward to working in a space that is fully equipped for 21st Century learning. The modernized Media Center is already being used for collaborations and presentations. Once all technologies are in place, the Center will be open for students to explore, create, and innovate. Additionally, we are excited to report that the new athletic complex will be built in the fall! Coaches and students are ready to practice and work out in a place that houses state-of-the-art equipment. Lastly, the District has launched a number of business-sponsored beautification projects, including constructing a new stage for graduation, designing new signs, and enhancing the landscaping around campus.

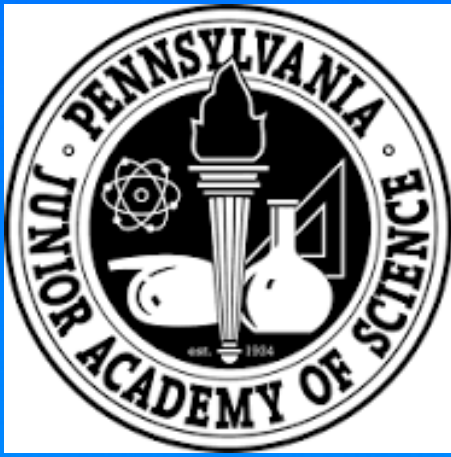

Our teachers have been especially busy this school year. As an extension of their day-to-day teaching responsibilities, all engaged in extremely rigorous training on how to help students develop problem-solving and critical thinking skills. By taking a graduate course, offered through ISTE U, teachers learned to instruct in a way that requires students to decompose complex problems, recognize patterns, visualize the intangible, and create algorithms for solutions. Now, teachers will be able to revamp their curricula to include opportunities for students to build essential skills. I am so proud of our teachers for diving deep into this learning opportunity, and modeling for students what it means to be life-long learners.

We will continue to provide an outstanding education and build a safe, secure learning environment for students and staff. I feel confident that we are on the right path to forge ahead in the best interest of our Hillers. To those returning to campus in September, know that we look forward to working with you again as we learn, grow, and strengthen relationships. To our graduating seniors, we are cheering you on as you begin the next chapter of your lives and do great things! May you all have a safe, relaxing, and happy summer. I hope you find time to slow down, spend time with friends and family, and resume the activities that energize you and bring you joy.

In Partnership,

Dr. Michael P. Lucas
Superintendent

Congratulations!

In May, 45 high schoolers traveled to Penn State University with their science teachers for the state round of the Pennsylvania Junior Academy of Science competition (PJAS). The PJAS competition is quite rigorous; students are required to practice as scientists by designing and performing an experiment in one of several categories like biology, behavioral psychology, and chemistry, for example. Students reflect upon the strengths and limitations of their work, and share their findings and reflections with judges. Teachers Mrs. Welsh, Mr. Smith, and Mrs. Walk are so proud of their students, who collectively won 26 first place awards, 15 second place awards, 1 third place award, and 2 perfect scores (Students' names are listed below.). Additionally, senior Emma Riddell was presented with the Outstanding Microbiology Award, and senior Sophia Misner was awarded a scholarship to Penn State's College of Agriculture. We are so proud of our Hillers!

Senior Projects

This year, seniors in English 12 participated in a 20Time research project for the first time ever. They devoted 20% of their learning over an eight-week period to independently pursuing a passion project that would extend beyond the walls of the classroom. Students began the research process with a ‘Shark Tank’ project pitch and ended with a final reflection in a ‘Ted Talk’ format. Some students learned to sew and designed their own prom dress, others created a family cookbook and learned more about their family traditions and customs, and others created new inventions like an all-purpose survival tool. At the end of the presentations, children’s books were written, volunteering was completed at the Washington Humane Society, engines were rebuilt, and fitness goals were reached. One student even gained notoriety for his skill in cornhole and earned a sponsorship through the project! Through the process, seniors set and implemented goals, adjusted as needed, and reflected on their growth as they showcased what they learned. Dr. DeMore, Ms. Shaw, and Mr. Swarrow eagerly look forward to continuing this senior experience in the future!

A Joint Venture!

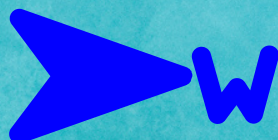

On Friday, May 26, a group of students volunteered to plant flowers at Donnell House-Concordia Hospice of Washington. The students were part of Trinity High School's FFA organization and/or AP environmental science class. They planted, watered, trimmed existing plants, and cleaned the courtyard area so families can enjoy time outside in a beautiful space. Everyone did a wonderful job and enjoyed being outside on a beautiful day to work for a great cause. Thank you to Roxanne Sweany, Bereavement Volunteer Coordinator, and Trinity teachers, Mrs. Durila and Mrs. Monteleone, for giving students this opportunity.

Ms. Kristen Shaw and the THS Literary Journal staff are proud to announce the publication of this year's journal with the selected theme: "Adventure of a Lifetime". This 184-page student magazine is a compilation of original poetry, fiction, nonfiction, and artwork from students in grades 9 - 12. Thank you to our student leaders who oversaw production from start to finish, as well as to our student contributors who filled the pages with their writing and artistic talent. Stay tuned for the journal to be available as a digital copy on our district website.

Easton's final competitor, Parker Gardner, is to be commended for putting up a strong battle. Easton was able to win despite losing his Queen early in the game. Fifth graders learned how to play during recess and continued their matches during recess. Many fifth graders gave it a try. Good job, fifth grade!

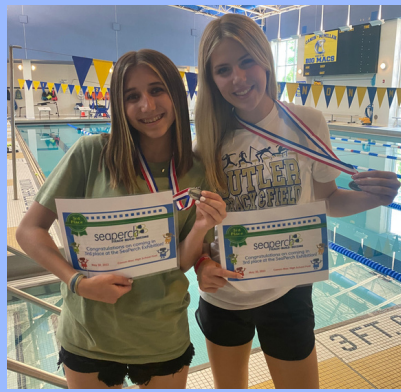

On March 31, 9th grade English teachers, Mrs. Child and Mrs. Siegman, celebrated the completion of their study of "The Odyssey" with a guest performer. Autism Awareness

During April, Trinity West students shined a light on autism in honor of Autism Awareness Month and individuals who are on the Autism spectrum. Autistic support teachers, Ms. Kristi Kubatka, Mrs. Kristi Lowden, and Ms. Chase Hoobler, worked alongside parents and staff to promote awareness, kindness to all, and acceptance of differences. Trinity West was decorated with colorful messages, and true/false interactive facts were displayed throughout the building. Students who demonstrated acts of kindness were awarded puzzle pieces that contributed to a building-wide "kindness tree." To promote awareness of Autism, students also participated in a door decorating contest and enjoyed a spirit week during which everyone proudly wore stickers, ribbons, and buttons. Lastly, Trinity West worked hard to support Spectrum Fudge, a small business that employs adults with disabilities and creates job opportunities for adults with Autism.
