

IMMEDIATE NEWS RELEASE as soon as space is available

2023 Business Advisory Council Integrity Scholarship

The Clinton County Business Advisory Council is pleased to announce the following recipients of the 2023 Integrity Scholarship:

Drake Bennett
Clinton-Massie Local

Dakota Collom
East Clinton Local

Nathan Ellis
East Clinton Local

Elizabeth Evanshine
East Clinton

Jenna Hanlon
Clinton-Massie Local

Katherine Murphy
Wilmington City

Connor Stulz
Clinton-Massie Local

Devon Snyder
Wilmington City

Jaden Snyder
Wilmington City

The scholarship was initiated in 1998 to make the cost of post-secondary education more affordable to deserving students. The recipients are selected based on attributes such as ethics, ambition, and academic promise.

This year, nine students were awarded a scholarship for $625. The generosity of the following businesses and individuals in Clinton County made this year's scholarship possible:

Air Transport Services Group, Inc.
American Equipment Service Inc.
BDK Feed & Supply
Bush Auto Place
Champion Bridge Company, Inc.
Clinton County Port Authority
Croghan Autocare, LTD

Curless Printing Company
D & E Equipment
Ellis Fence and Home Exteriors
First National Bank of Blanchester
Fox Towing & Truck Services, Inc.
Greater Tomorrow Health
McCarty Gardens, LLC
Melvin Stone Company

Moore's Garden Center
Nationwide Insurance, Paul Hall
Naylor's Furniture
Peelle Law Offices
Smith-Feike-Minton Inc.
Phil & Vicki Snow
South Central Ohio OB Gyn, Inc.
Uptown Printing

This is the 26th year for the BAC Scholarship and including the nine recipients listed, one hundred and eighty-five graduates have been awarded scholarships totaling over $96,000.00.

The Clinton County Foundation administers the scholarship fund. A campaign for the 2024 scholarship drive will begin in October.

For More Information Contact:
Beth Justice, Superintendent
Southern Ohio Educational Service Center
(937) 382-6921