

About Job's Daughters

What Job's Daughters IS:

It is an organization for young women between the ages of 10 and 20 who are related to a Master Mason or may be sponsored by a Master Mason and Majority Member.

It is religious in its character.

It teaches love of country and obedience to its laws.

It teaches respect for parents and elders.

It teaches love of home.

It prepares young women for domestic, civic, business, religious, fraternal, and social activities.

What Job's Daughters is NOT:

It is NOT a religion or creed.

It is NOT a political organization.

It is NOT a charity organization.

It is NOT organized for profit.

It does NOT dictate to its members as to her beliefs, either religious or secular.

It is NOT a secret society as it does NOT conceal its existence.

“Character Building” Principles

Build Your Self-Confidence

Believe in yourself, participate in a select team effort of “growing up.” Exercise Your Talents Improve your abilities for speaking, singing, and relating to others. Develop Leadership Qualities Plan fun projects and group activities; learn through experience. Make New & Lasting Friendships Meet great people; make new friends from near and far. Enjoy Fun Activities Sleepovers, dances, dinners, travel, bowling – to only name a few!

Be of Service to Others

Charity and service projects. For example, the Ronald McDonald House & HIKE (Hearing Impaired Kids Endowment Fund)

How to Explain Job's Daughters

Job's Daughters is a girl's leadership and personal development organization.

We learn how to work together to run business meetings and plan activities.

It teaches us public speaking, leadership skills, respect and responsibility.

It helps our self-confidence and builds character.

We take part in community service, making many friends & having lots of FUN!

Visit our website: www.injdi.org

For more information, please contact:

Nicci Trump – Bethel Guardian

Ronda Prather – Bethel Guardian Secretary

Email: Bethel107injdi@gmail.com

Please put Job's Daughters in subject line

