Economic Development Specialist Chad Kuzontkoski 860.668.3849

e: ckuzontkoski@suffieldct.gov

An Economic Development Specialist is available to offer support and guidance, promoting and facilitating the growth of businesses in the community. They work with both new and existing businesses, providing access to resources and programs, and advice on topics such as financing and marketing strategies. The objective is to create a welcoming environment that encourages investment and job creation, while also contributing to the overall economic well-being of the town.

Director of Planning & Development Bill Hawkins 860.668.3848 ext. 3332

e: bhawkins@suffieldct.gov

All businesses within the Town are required to obtain a zoning permit. This is to ensure that the business conforms to the Zoning Regulations.

- Certain businesses may only need to notify the Planning & Zoning Office of their intentions and may receive approvals or sign off on a Trade Name Certificate.
- Other businesses may be required to obtain Planning & Zoning Commission (PZC) approval. You will be provided with the appropriate checklist and fee schedule.

Design Review Board (Planning & Zoning Subcommittee) P&Z office: 860.668.3848

If your business is proposed within the Village District Zones (Town Center and West Suffield Center) this board reviews your zoning application and provides advisory recommendations to the PZC, under the following conditions: it is a new building; exterior changes to existing buildings; site work changes like parking lots, and new permanent signs.

Conservation Commission Keith Morris 860.668.3847 ext. 3661 e: kmorris@suffieldct.gov

If you are building a new building, or expanding a building, contact with Conservation to determine if your plans may impact inland wetlands on the property.

Water Pollution Control Authority Julie Nigro 860.668.3856 e: jnigro@suffieldct.gov

The P&Z office will advise you whether your business is available for connection to the town sewer. If your business is connected, or will be required to connect, the WPCA will advise you of the appropriate regulations and costs associated with connection and usage.

North Central District Health Department (NCDHD) Patricia Sulik, Director of Health

860.745.0383 e: psulik@ncdhd.org

NCDHD is available M-F, 8:30am – 4:30pm at 31 North Main St., Enfield, CT 06082. This is the local health department for the Town of Suffield, responsible for the licensing and/or regulations of activities such as Bed & Breakfast, day care, food service, sewage disposal, and installation & maintenance of wells, as required by the Connecticut General Statutes, the Connecticut Public Health Code and local (District) regulations. Additional facts and forms are available at the NCDHD website, www.ncdhd.org.
