

Colton Turner

Colton Turner is a 2009 graduate of JHS. He was a 3 year letterman in baseball for the Owls. In 2008, he helped the Owls win the District 8-4A Baseball District Championship. During his high school career, he threw four no-hitters and was named first team All-District in baseball as a sophomore, junior and senior. His senior year, he was named All-Johnson County Most Valuable Player and was named to the Texas Sports Writers' Association All-State Baseball Team. After graduating from Joshua High School, he attended Texas State University on a baseball scholarship. As a first year starting pitcher at Texas State University in 2011, he had a team best 9-2 record and was named All-Southland Conference Honorable Mention. In 2012, he was drafted in the 21st round of the Major League Baseball Draft by the Toronto Blue Jays and became a member of the Blue Jays pitching staff and organization. Colton Turner is honored for his time, effort, and contributions to our past and present and for establishing a standard of excellence for our future Owls.
