Welcome to our school!

Our Promise for Plum Creek Elementary as your Principals:

We promise to be here to offer our best to the students of Plum Creek. Our commitment to the students, parents, staff, and community will reflect an open, honest, and caring relationship while maintaining the mission to student achievement. Our experiences in education have given us a broad base of knowledge from which to make decisions. We promise that all decisions will be made with compassion, intellect, and heart for what's best for the students at Plum Creek Elementary.

To our staff, we promise to support you by providing the tools you need to be the absolute best you can be. We promise to listen, be receptive to your ideas, and validate your efforts. Communication is the key. We promise that our doors will always be open, and that our mission will be clear at all times. Student achievement is our number one priority. We are here to produce "High Achieving Students and Citizens". We promise that as new programs are adopted by the school system and the state, we will work to provide the resources and training to ensure that transitions go smoothly while maintaining quality instruction that promotes "best" practices.

To our students, we promise to make data driven decisions that will ensure student learning is nothing short of the best we have to offer. We promise to provide routine and structure to the school day. Instructional time will be held sacred, and interruptions during the school day will be avoided at all cost. We promise to make our school a place where children come to have fun while they learn. We promise students a safe haven by surrounding them with teachers and staff who truly care about them as individuals and work tirelessly to meet their every increasing needs.

To our parents, we promise when children leave Plum Creek to attend middle school, they will have had a quality education that ensures their success and academic excellence. We promise to have an open door at all times. We promise to listen and understand while making every attempt to solve problems as they arise. We promise to ensure that we provide the best academic program we have to offer; and we promise your children will learn in a loving, caring environment. We promise to show you that your children are our number one priority in everything we do and in every decision that is made.

To our community, we promise to promote Plum Creek in a positive light and to continue the excellent reputation the school and district has maintained over the years. We promise to support the community and businesses in Joshua in a partnership with our school. We will work together to meet the challenges ahead. Therefore, we promise to provide customer service both on campus and off campus, and set the same expectation for our entire staff.

We are so excited for this year to begin. This is going to be an amazing year!

Sincerely,

Shelly A. Green, Principal
Jennifer Leonard, Assistant Principal
