

School Board Recognitions

February 2020

Check under “Kudos” at fcps.net for more details about these awards and other honors.

Eighth grader Danit Schachman from Edythe J. Hayes Middle School placed first in the jewelry category at the state's 2020 Junior Beta Club Convention. She and her original designs will advance to the national competition this summer.

An academic team from Beaumont Middle School placed second in Section 27 of this year's Sixth Grade Showcase, which is sponsored by the Honorable Order of Kentucky Colonels.

More than a dozen seniors in Fayette County Public Schools are 2020 candidates in the U.S. Presidential Scholars Program, which is one of the nation's most prestigious honors recognizing high school students' accomplishments.

The Foundation for Music Education has designated the middle school band from SCAPA at Bluegrass as Kentucky's state-level winner of the 2019 Mark of Excellence award in the national wind band honors division.

Frederick Douglass High School was runner-up in Kentucky's Class 5A football championship. It was Douglass' first finals appearance in only the school's third year of existence, which is a remarkable achievement.

Frederick Douglass High School took second place in the Large Varsity division at the 2020 Universal Cheerleaders Association's National High School Cheerleading Championships. Douglass also earned first place in the Large Division at the 2019 KHSAA state competitive cheer championships.

Paul Laurence Dunbar High School was runner-up in the Large Division of the 2019 KHSAA competitive cheer state championships. Dunbar also placed 11th in their division at the UCA's National High School Cheerleading Championships.

Lafayette High School secured first-place honors in the jazz division of the 2019-20 KHSAA Dance Championships and finished third in hip-hop. Lafayette also placed first at the Universal Dance Association's Bluegrass Championship.

Fayette County Public Schools is proud to salute 17 teachers who have earned National Board Certification this school year.

Our very own STEM Bus was a national STEM Excellence Awards finalist at the 2020 Future of Education Technology Conference.

Frederick Douglass High School received an ASHRAE Technology Award for its innovative building concepts, technological achievements, and proven sustainable design.

Transportation employees Randy Swartz (left) and John Vogler received the superintendent's 212 Degrees Award for going above and beyond to serve students who ride their school buses.