

School Board Recognitions

September 2018

For more details about
these and other awards,
check under “Kudos”
at fcps.net

Logan Florence of Bryan Station High School was among the 2018 participants in Governor's School for the Arts. His area was instrumental music (cello and acoustic guitar).

Henry Clay High School sent four students to the Governor's School for the Arts.

Lafayette High School, which houses SCAPA, boasted the most GSA participants of any school in Fayette County.

Three of Bates Creek High School's four GSA participants attended the school board meeting.

Henry Clay High School produced several of the 55 students from Fayette County Public Schools who completed the Governor's Scholars Program this summer.

Lafayette High School also had several students to participate in the Governor's Scholars Program in 2018.

Paul Laurence Dunbar High School saluted its students who were named Governor's Scholars.

The STEAM Academy sent two students to GSP.

Tates Creek High School also boasted several Governor's Scholars.

Toni Dunn (holding award) was named Kentucky's School Social Worker of the Year. On her right is Tammie Franks, principal of Harrison Elementary.