

School Board Recognitions

October 2018

For more details about these and other awards, check under "Kudos" at fcps.net

Fayette County Public Schools boasts 51 semifinalists in the 2019 National Merit Scholarship competition.

The Kentucky World Language Association saluted Maria Mato-Fresan, a fourth-grade Spanish Immersion teacher at Maxwell Elementary (left) as Outstanding New Teacher and Lucianne Junker of Tates Creek High School as Kentucky's Latin Teacher of the Year.

Among the night's environmental honorees was Meadowthorpe Elementary, which was named a national Green Ribbon School.

Kristen Witt of the Academy for Leadership at Millcreek Elementary received the Kentucky Green & Healthy Schools' Instructional Leadership Award.

Leslie Campbell of Bryan Station High School received the Kentucky Green & Healthy Schools' Instructional Leadership Award.

Sharla Gross of the Family Care Center received the Kentucky Green & Healthy Schools' Instructional Leadership Award.

Kentucky Green & Healthy Schools designated Morton Middle School, under the direction of teacher Carla Trisko, as a model site for a third straight year.

Kentucky's National Energy Education Development (KY NEED) congratulated SCAPA at Bluegrass as Rookie of the Year.