

FCPS school board recognitions

August 2017

For more details on awards, check under “Kudos” at fcps.net

An FPS team from Winburn Middle School was a junior division champion in the Future Problem-Solving Program International competition this summer.

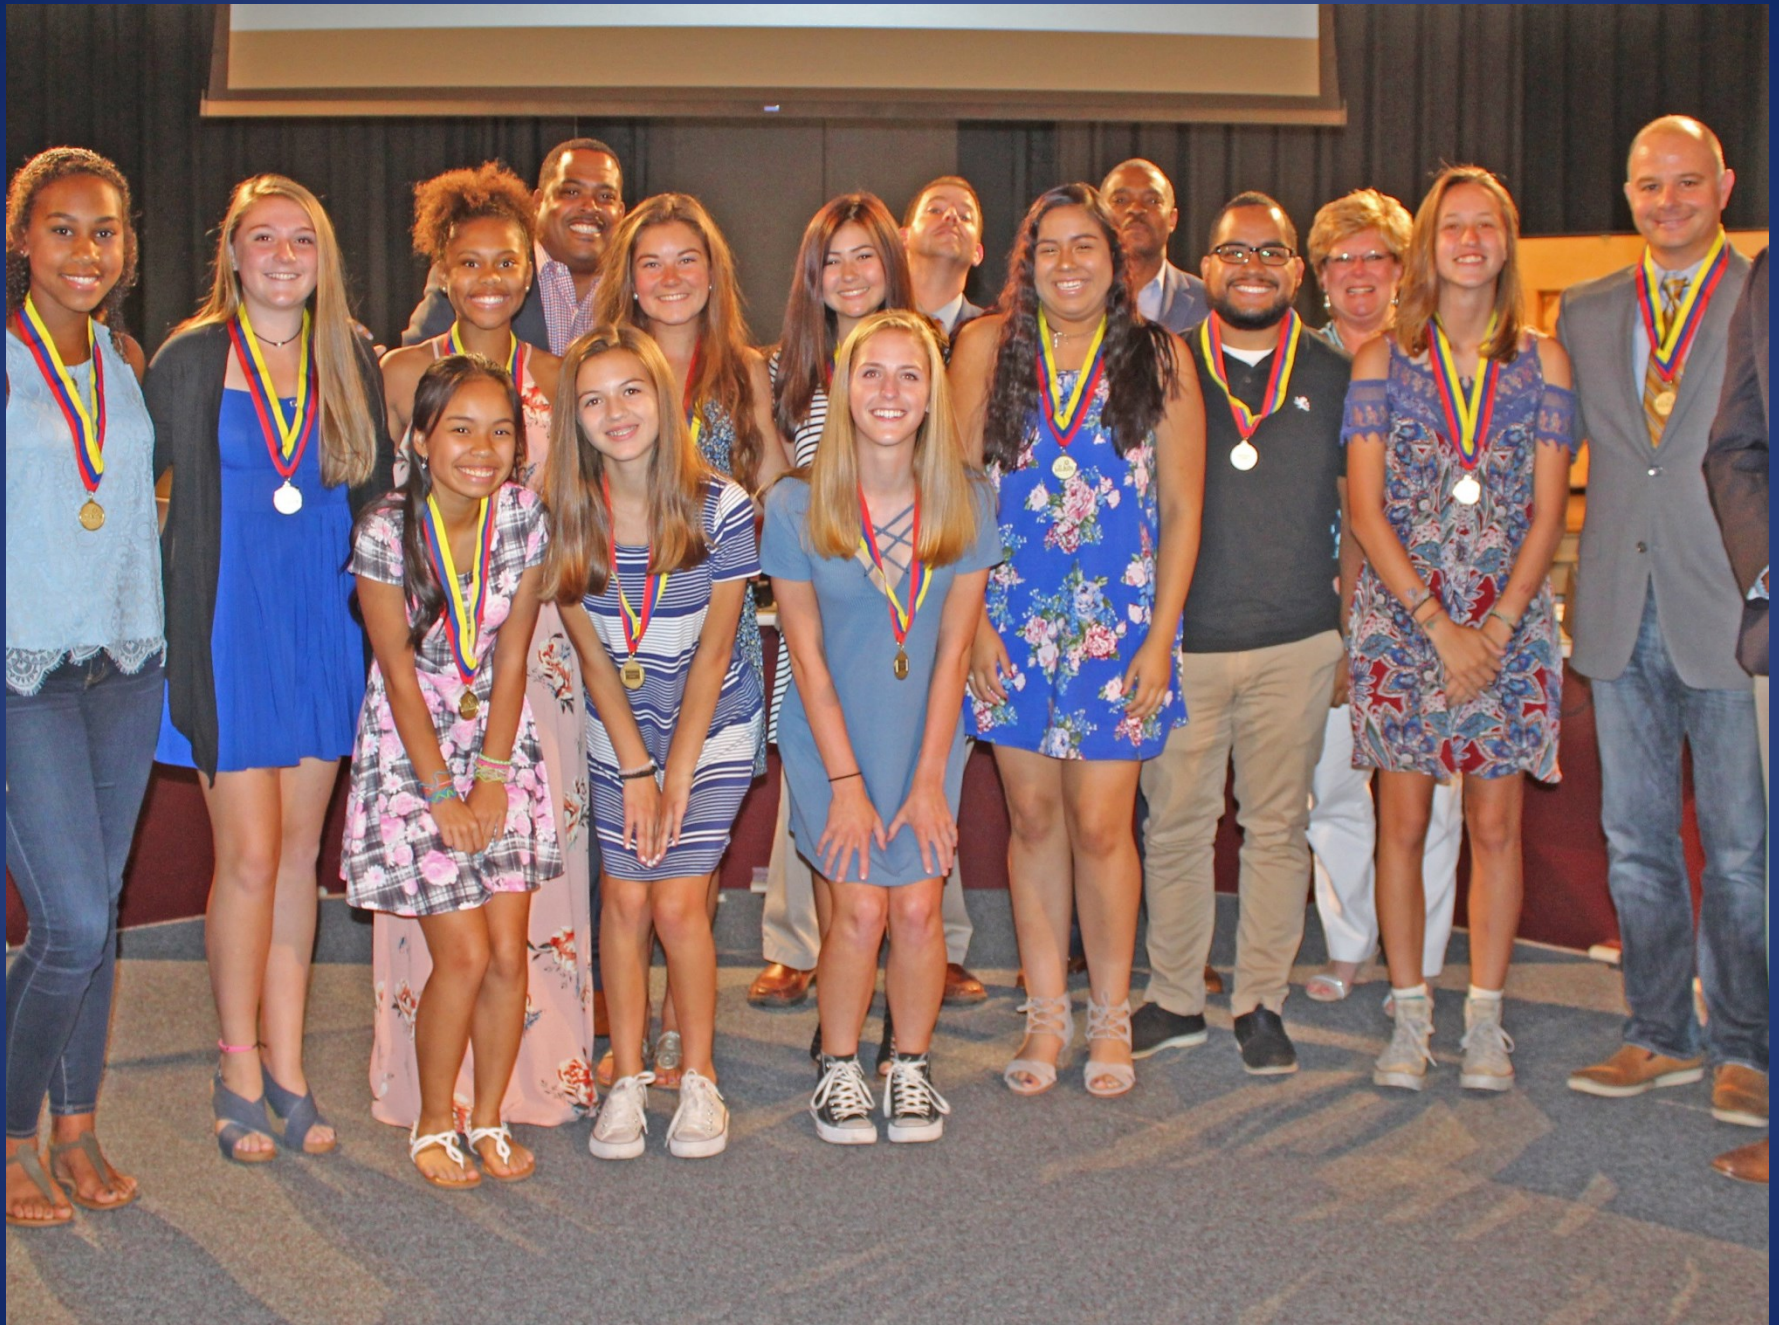

FCCLA members from Beaumont Middle School earned medals at the Family, Career, and Community Leaders of America's national conference, and teacher Anna Sullinger received the Spirit of Advising Award.

The boys' lacrosse team from Henry Clay High School captured their third consecutive state championship.

Congratulations also to the Henry Clay girls' lacrosse team on their first-ever championship season.

The Learning Center, led by Principal Chris Salyers, was selected by the Kentucky Department of Education as an Alternative Program of Distinction for the third year in a row.

Fayette County Public Schools was selected by the University of Kentucky's Center for Community Outreach as its 2016-17 Community Partner of the Year. Homeless education liaison James Hodge accepted the award.

This month's "212 Degrees Award," given to employees who go above and beyond the call of duty, went to the staffers who made sure the second annual Superintendent's Leadership Institute ran smoothly.