

SCHOOL BOARD RECOGNITIONS

March 2018

For more details about these and other awards,
check under “Kudos”
at fcps.net

At the start of their March 26 meeting, the school board welcomed the three honorary board members (from left): student representative Reagan Smith of Henry Clay High School, classified staff representative Shannon Prather of Ashland Elementary, and teacher representative David Moore of Martin Luther King Jr. Academy.

Rosa Parks Elementary brought home a regional championship in the 2018 Governor's Cup.

Wellington Elementary was overall runner-up in Region 22 of Governor's Cup.

The future problem-solving team from Clays Mill Elementary earned second-place honors in Governor's Cup.

Jacob Henz of Liberty Elementary placed second in composition in the Governor's Cup regional.

An Edythe J. Hayes Middle School student and the Leestown Middle quiz bowl team earned ribbons at the Junior Beta Club state convention.

The cheer team from Edythe J. Hayes Middle School was runner-up in Small Junior High Division of the 2018 National High School Cheerleading Championships.

A team from Lafayette High School took first place in the Level 2 skit category at the 2018 Japanese Speech Contest.

The speech and debate team from Henry Clay High School was the overall sweepstakes champion in the Smoky Mountain Invitational.

Bryan Station and Lafayette high schools picked up several honors at the Indoor State Track-and-Field Championships.

Matthew Street of Henry Clay High School and coaches Christian Clark and Jamie Palumbo earned kudos at the state swimming and diving championships.

The Kentucky Chapter of the American String Teachers Association recently presented state-level awards to two FCPS employees: Patti Stanton and Nancy Campbell.

Bus driver and bus monitor Rechelle Jones and Tenika Walker-Segar received the Superintendent's 212 Degrees Award for picking up a first-grader walking along New Circle Road and taking him safely to his school.