

School Board Recognitions

APRIL 2018

FOR MORE DETAILS ABOUT THESE AND OTHER AWARDS,
CHECK UNDER “KUDOS” AT FCPS.NET

Jennifer Lee and Megan Slusarewicz of Paul Laurence Dunbar High School earned national medals in the 2018 Scholastic Art & Writing Awards competition.

Ayush Kumar of Winburn Middle took first place in math, and Stephen Yin of Paul Laurence Dunbar High School was second in math in the Governor's Cup state finals.

The boys' basketball team from Morton Middle School was the "A" team city tournament champion.

The boys' basketball team from Beaumont Middle School was the "B" team city tournament champion.

Educators Rising Kentucky is a nonprofit student organization for middle and high school students interested in education-related careers. In recent state contests, the top overall winners included Noah Langford and Jazmin Luttrell from Bryan Station High School and Lydia Anglin and Rosalee Hicks from Lafayette High School.

The Lafayette Chamber Orchestra was a runner-up in the National Orchestra Festival.

Several students brought home awards from the Beta Club state convention.

Dunbar's speech team took first place in the Kentucky Educational Speech and Drama Association tournament.

Also, Neomia Hagans Flores was named Debate Coach of the Year.

Henry Clay High School's debate team was state champion in the Kentucky High School Speech League's tournament.

Angela Stark of SCAPA at Bluegrass was the 2018 Southern district's Middle School Physical Education Teacher of the Year and a finalist for the national honor.

Bob Moore picked up the Outstanding Leader Award and Sam Conder the Outstanding Technical Support Award at the Kentucky Society for Technology in Education state conference.

Soraya Matthews, the district's director of Curriculum, Instruction, and Assessment for high schools, received the 2018 Dr. Johnnie Grissom Award from the Kentucky Board of Education.

Superintendent Manny
Caulk is among the 2018
Leaders to Learn From,
a national recognition
for his outstanding leadership in district improvement.

