

School Board Recognitions

May 2018

For more details about these and other awards, check under “Kudos” at fcps.net

Judges selected the artwork of 14 students to be featured in the district's 2018-19 calendar and family handbook.

LTMS seventh-grader Chanaeya Beatty was runner-up in her age group in the statewide Public Service Recognition Week poster contest.

Several students from SCAPA at Bluegrass earned kudos in the Grand Concours national French contest.

Students from Winburn Middle School captured the team championship and top individual honors in the 2018 state MATHCOUNTS competition.

The Sixth District's standouts in the 2018 Congressional Art Competition included overall winner Tuesday Hadden of Lafayette High School, Rhianna Culp of Henry Clay High School, and Adrianna Gomez of Bryan Station High School.

Ten high school artists from Fayette County Public Schools earned recognition in the Kentucky Art Education Association's 2018 all-state competition.

The Craft Academy for Excellence in Science and Mathematics at Morehead State has selected three students from FCPS for its Class of 2020.

The Class of 2020 at the Gatton Academy of Mathematics and Science will include six students from Fayette County schools.

Nearly a dozen students from Fayette County Public Schools received recognition in the Kentucky World Language Association's 2018 state showcase.

Teams from Dixie Magnet Elementary and Bryan Station Middle School won the 2018 Battle of the Books, a competitive reading incentive program.

Rosa Parks Elementary was runner-up in the K3 and K5 sections of the Kentucky Chess Association's 2018 scholastic state team tournament.

A group of eighth-graders from SCAPA at Bluegrass earned first-prize honors in the finals of the 2018 Lexus Eco Challenge, a national contest.

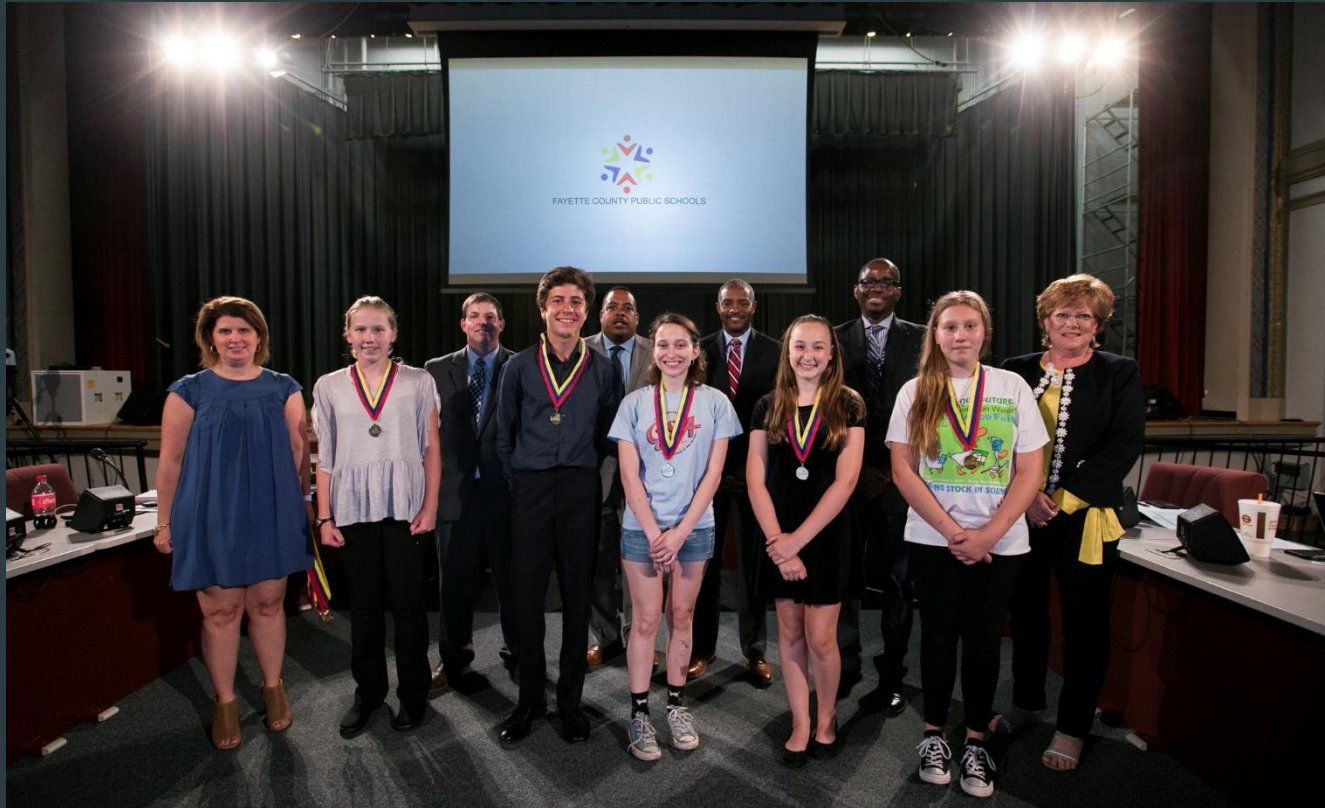

FCPS produced several state-level winners in Kentucky's National History Day competition, which explored the theme "Conflict and Compromise."

The speech team from SCAPA at Bluegrass secured the school's 21st straight junior division championship in the Kentucky High School Speech League's state tournament.

More than a dozen club members from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School brought home awards from the 2018 Future Business Leaders of America's state conference in Louisville.

Two students earned Best of Fair honors at the 2018 Kentucky Science & Engineering Fair, and many others received category awards.

Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) club members from Beaumont Middle and Henry Clay High School picked up state-level awards this spring.

Students from Eastside Technical Center earned kudos in the 2018 SkillsUSA Kentucky Leadership Conference and Skills Competition.

Students from Southside Technical Center earned kudos in the 2018 SkillsUSA Kentucky Leadership Conference and Skills Competition.

The 212 Degrees Award recipient was Student Support Services administrative assistant Pam White, for going above and beyond in the service of students and families experiencing homelessness.