

School Board Recognitions

June 2018

For more details about these and other awards, check under “Kudos” at fcps.net

Cole Bishop, a rising second-grader at Veterans Park Elementary, was a winner in the Dream Out Loud Challenge and received a $1,000 college savings account.

Jenny Lee, a rising sophomore at Paul Laurence Dunbar High School, was a runner-up in the annual Nathaniel Patch Piano Competition.

Bryan Station Middle School's cheer squad was a runner-up in the Florida Finals of the Apex Cheer & Dance Championships.

The PLD Lamplighter, Dunbar's media program, earned numerous awards and national recognition for excellence in journalism.

FCPS boasted several state-level winners and two national honorees in the PTA's Reflections contest.

Middle school athletes from several schools won first- and second-place honors in the state track-and-field championships.

Two teams from Bryan Station High School and several individuals from various schools were among the top performers in the STLP State Championships.

Students from Lexington Traditional Magnet School brought home awards from the Technology Student Association's state conference.

Students from Southern Middle School also earned awards in the Technology Student Association's state contests.

Students from Lafayette High School also placed first and second in various contests during the Technology Student Association's state conference.

Jennifer Burton of Henry Clay High School was selected as the Kentucky Association of Family & Consumer Sciences' Teacher of the Year.

Tiffany Marsh, a vocal music teacher at Dunbar, is Kentucky's 2019 High School Teacher of the Year.