

ACADEMIES OF LEXINGTON PLEDGE

This is the pledge the Academies of Lexington makes to you. As a student of the Academies of Lexington, you are offered many opportunities to extend your learning beyond the classroom.

You are encouraged to make the most of these opportunities, with the expectation you will graduate academically strong and:

- hopeful and prepared for your future.
- comfortable with taking risks and knowing how to fail-forward.
- open to a diverse view of the world.

THE ACADEMIES OF LEXINGTON PLEDGE

1. We promise you opportunities to explore a range of careers so you can make informed choices about your future, whether you are continuing your studies or going directly into the workforce.
2. We promise to provide a variety of diverse opportunities and experiences to build your confidence and effectiveness as a communicator.
3. We promise to develop and promote an environment where you think deeply with an open mindset, a willingness to listen, and a safe space to take risks.
4. We promise to provide you with team experiences that foster trust, collaboration, communication, and accountability.
5. We promise to model and empower you to make difficult, critical, and appropriate decisions necessary to thrive in a variety of situations.
6. We promise to expand your knowledge of and appreciation for the arts through creative and culturally diverse experiences.
7. We promise to broaden your local, regional, and global experiences.
8. We promise to foster your sense of belonging as a dedicated and invested citizen through giving back to the community.
