

North Davis Jr. High
Parent and Family Engagement Policy (U.S.C. 6318)
2023-2024

North Davis Jr. High regards parental involvement vital to the academic success of students. Parents are the primary teachers of their student and are partners with the school in helping them achieve academic success.

North Davis Jr. High will inform parents of the school's participation in Title I by:

- Sharing Title I information at Back to School, showing the Title I presentation, obtaining Title I signatures electronically on myDSD and offering flexible meeting times for parents to know about and be involved with Title I, and
- Involving parents and community council in developing and reviewing the Teacher and Student Success Plan (TSSP), Title I Policy, and Title I School-Home Compact.

North Davis Jr. High will provide program information and assistance, as appropriate, to parents on academic standards, assessments, and achievement levels by:

- Providing information on State/District standards and the district approved curriculum used at school,
- Conducting regular assessments and reporting results for individual students, school and district, and
- Describing proficiency levels students are expected to meet to make adequate growth throughout the year.

North Davis Jr. High will provide materials and training to help parents work with their student by:

- Providing resources to support parents and students at home, and
- Providing parent nights on learning management systems and curriculum content (reading, math, science) to support their students.

North Davis Jr. High will educate teachers and staff on effective ways to communicate with and reach out to parents by:

- Implementing Community Council and other parent programs such as Parent Teacher Student Association (PTSA),
- Encouraging parents to attend and participate in Parent Teacher conferences (PTC), and
- Communicating through printed notes, call outs, email and social media.

North Davis Jr. High will coordinate with other Federal, State and local programs that encourage and support parents in educating their student by:

- Providing information on Wasatch Community Center, Davis Technical College (DTC), Catalyst Center, etc., and
- Providing classes and services as needed from Family Services to assist students and families.

North Davis Jr. High will ensure that the policy and information related to school programs, meetings, and activities is sent home in a format and, to the extent practicable, language the parents can understand by:

- Translating the policy and key documents,
- Posting translated documents on the school website, and
- Updating documents periodically as needed.

North Davis Jr. High will provide support for reasonable activities parents may request.
