THE POLICY

The Salt Lake City School District Board of Education complies with all state and federal laws pertaining to protecting the privacy of student education records, including personal information about students and families. District employees shall not disclose information contained in student education records unless the requesting individual or agency has both a legal right and a legitimate educational need to obtain the information.

The purpose of this policy is to assure that students and their parents or guardians are notified of and afforded their rights in accordance with the law, including:

- A. the right to review and request the amendment of student education records;
- B. the right to limit access to student education records;
- C. the right to be notified of, examine, and either consent to or opt out of, participating in surveys or educational activities that relate to specific protected areas;
- D. the right to deny the release of names, addresses, and telephone numbers to military or college recruiters and/or the media; and
- E. the right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning possible violations of law.

The district has set forth its specific process for implementing this board policy through the accompanying administrative procedures.

No district employee or student shall be subjected to discrimination in employment or any district program or activity on the basis of age, color, disability, gender, gender identity, genetic information, national origin, pregnancy, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or veteran status. The district is committed to providing equal access and equal opportunity in its programs, services and employment including its policies, complaint processes, program accessibility, district facility use, accommodations and other Equal Employment Opportunity matters. The district also provides equal access to district facilities for all youth groups listed in Title 36 of the United States Code, including scouting groups. The following person has been designated to handle inquiries and complaints regarding unlawful discrimination, harassment, and retaliation: Tina Hatch, Compliance and Investigations/Title IX Coordinator, 440 East 100 South, Salt Lake City, Utah 84111, (801) 578-8388.
