

TUTORING FOR PAY

No licensed employee shall instruct, tutor or coach for compensation any student directly assigned to him or her during the school year.

Exceptions to this policy are students receiving authorized homebound instruction approved by the director of special education or a licensed employee whose services have been requested in writing through the department of human resources by a student, parent or guardian.

Adopted prior to 1985

Revised July 8, 1998

Revised May 16, 2012