Emergency Reaction Plan (ERP) for the Athletic Training Room (ATR)

This ERP is to be used for any event (practice, conditioning, games, and rehabs/treatments) that requires the use of the ATR

Current Personnel

Luisa Storey Head Athletic Trainer (505) 249 - 4915

Shonn Schroer Athletic Director (505) 681 - 4233

*Head Coach is responsible for being a first responder (if the Athletic Trainer is unavailable) and calling 911. The assistant coaches are responsible for crowd control or guiding emergency response teams through the Main Gym to the Athletic Training Room.

*Gym Master's are responsible for crowd control, making sure all accesses to the patient are open and/or calling 911 (if necessary)

In case a severe emergency occurs, follow these steps:

- Call 911 and provide the dispatcher with the following information:
 - The Nature of the Emergency (trauma, illness, etc.)
 - The location of the injured student - athlete, please provide the physical address and then the specific directions to the ATR
 - The callers name and phone number, in case of disconnection
 - The caller could be either the Certified Athletic Trainer (ATC), Athletic Director (AD), Head or Assistant coaches, event staff, or college level student athletic trainers (ATS)
 - Number of patients
 - What has been done so far such as: first aid, bleeding control, inhaler, epi-pen delivery, etc
 - Once EMS has arrived, they'll ask for any vital signs that were taken and any medical history that is pertaining to the situation

Make sure that parents have been notified or are aware that EMS has been called. EMS will not leave with the Student-Athlete unless a parent or guardian is present unless it's a life or death situation - please refer to Emergency Contact Sheets

Transportation:

Student's who are unable to drive due to an injury or illness, a parent or a guardian must transport them, unless other arrangements have been made prior to the injury.

Documentation:

Please refer to the emergency patient care documents

All emergency situations must be documented, please fill out the form with all pertinent information Include timestamps
